UNCLE SAM AFTER SWIFT & CO. FOR ALLEGED INFRINGEMENT OF PURE FOOD LAW AT LA CROSSE

PENALTY FINE OF
$10,000 AND JAIL

SHIPPED UNINSPECTED LARD
FROM WINONA, IS CHARGE

EIGHT LA CROSSE WITNESSES

Subpoenas for That Number of People Issued Here by U. S. on Roome Report

A warrant has been issued in United States district court of eastern Minnesota against Swift & Company, meat packers, charging a violation of the meat inspection law, in shipping alleged uninspected lard from Winona, Minn., to La Crosse and disposing of the product in this city.

United States Marshal Charles Lewiston, of Madison, Wis., yesterday and today served subpoenas upon eight residents of La Crosse to appear at Winona Tuesday, Nov. 26, to testify against the alleged violators of the law. Six of the witnesses purchased lard from Swift & Company here, or used the product. Four of the witnesses are grocers. Following are the witnesses:

Wallace K. Montague, one of the owners of the La Crosse Cracker & Candy company.

Le Roy Hemleben, 1608 Market street, baker employed by the La Crosse Cracker & Candy company.

Oscar Wensole, bookkeeper, 816 Mississippi street.

A. J. Beutler, grocer, 902 South Fourth street, 707 Rose street.

A. Engaas, grocer, 1202 West avenue south.

Jacob Hahn, grocer, 526 Mill street.

H. Engelhart, grocer, 1034 Red-field street.

Dr. Henry Roome, local government meat inspector.

Lard Made in Winona.

The quality of the lard is not questioned, the charge simply being an alleged violation of the meat inspection law. The lard was made in Winona, Minn., by August Schumacher, a small packer, whose plant is not furnished with a government inspector.

The alleged offense was committed last February, when a car consigned to La Crosse, with privilege of opening at Winona, was loaded with the alleged uninspected lard, and sent through to La Crosse. One hundred fifty pound cans of alleged uninspected lard were consigned to La Crosse, according to the complaint.

Dr. Henry Roome, local meat inspector, discovered the infraction of the inspection laws. Last Sunday he furnished Louis Haupt, United States district attorney at St. Paul, Minn., with the information at hand and assisted in drawing up the complaint.

Fine Is $10,000.

In event of conviction a fine as high as $10,000, or two years' imprisonment, or both, may be inflicted on the guilty. The federal statute reads:

"That any person, firm or corporation, or any officer or agent of any such person, firm or corporation, who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and shall be punished therefor by a fine of not exceeding ten thousand dollars, or imprisonment for a period of not more than two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court."

Aiken Bought Lard.

Loring A. Aiken, since deceased, former manager of Edwards Woods & Company's La Crosse branch, purchased a quantity of the lard. From him it was ascertained that the lard had not been inspected, the inspection stamp failing to appear on the can. Other people in the city also bought the lard, five of them appearing in the list of witnesses summoned to appear at Winona on Tuesday.

Dr. Roome has in his possession one of the cans of alleged uninspected lard. The can, securely locked and hidden away, has been in his possession since he obtained it last February. The can will be marked "Exhibit A" when the trial is held Tuesday. An opportunity was afforded Dr. Roome to purchase several cans, but he believed one to be a witness against Swift & Company and is expected to furnish the bulk of the testimony.

All Admit Service.

Messrs. Engaas, Hahn and Engelhart today admitted to a Tribune reporter that they had been summoned to appear at Winona to testify in the case. It was impossible to find Mr. Beutler.

RYAN, WISCONSIN COMMITTEEMAN, IS AT FRENCH LICK

TOM L. JOHNSON TO SUCCEED
THOMAS TAGGART.

TO FIX CONVENTION DATE

But Real Reason for the "House Party" Is to Settle the Bryan Question.

FRENCH LICK, Nov. 22.—The democratic national committee will meet in Washington in the middle of December to decide on the place and time of the next convention. Denver is making the hardest fight for the convention. Tom L. Johnson may succeed Taggart as national chairman. Committeemen T. E. Ryan of Wisconsin and W. J. Wade of Iowa, are among the arrivals.

Thus far Chairman Thomas Taggart's political house party has added little to the gaiety of his resort hotel. Members seem backward about coming forward and last night only three had arrived—Roger C. Sullivan of Illinois, John S. Osborne of Wyoming and Col. J. H. Wilmore as proxy for W. A. Rothwell of Missouri.

Even with the addition of T. E. Ryan of Wisconsin, and W. J. Wade of Iowa, who arrived today, there is not a very strong representation when it is considered in all fifty members of the committee, not counting those from Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico, have been invited.

All that is to be accomplished in the way of business is to fix the time and place for the formal meeting of the committee. While the ostensible purpose of this informal meeting was to fix the time and place of the convention, the real reason for it on the best of information obtainable is to sound out the members to see whether the presidential nomination next year is to go to Col. Bryan.

SEND BOWLERS TO STATE TOURNEY

The Thursday Night Women Folks' Bowling club rolled their first series of games at the Hunt Alleys last evening. Mrs. Frank Williams succeeded in establishing a new record for the ladies, bowling 200 in one of the games. The former record was held by herself of 192. She succeeded in getting an average of 153 for six games and is considered the best previous record for any woman in the city.

At a meeting of a number of men interested in bowling it was decided to send two teams from the city to the state tournament which will be held at Milwaukee in February. Gunds brewery will send a team and the other will be picked from the league.

Arrangements are being made for a series of games to be rolled with a picked team from this city and picked teams from Winona and West Salem.

AMERICAN TRUST CONTROL TOBACCO

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Vice President W. R. Harris of the American Tobacco company, in the suit of the government against the trust, was asked:

"What large concerns engaged in the manufacture of plug and smoking tobacco in 1890 are now engaged as independent concerns?"

Harris replied that at the moment he could not recall any.

Harris gave facts which showed that by foreign consolidations the American Tobacco company at one time controlled practically the tobacco trade of the world, save France Italy, Turkey and Austria-Hungary, in which lands the tobacco trade is a government monopoly.

ADMITS HE FORGED FOR BANKER WALSH

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Frederick McLean, formerly assistant cashier of the Chicago National bank, testified today that he, at Walsh's direction, forged the names of five men to six notes of $100,000 each, and that Walsh drew the money from the bank. He said when the notes were due they were taken up with a cashier's credit slip and new notes were made.

TYPES OF BEAUTY IN FOREIGN COURTS

The American woman and the American child are far from having a corner on the world's beauty. In fact in so representative a quarter as the royal courts themselves the continent of Europe displays personal charm of a rare type. Here are four splendid specimens in proof thereof. In the upper right hand corner is shown queenly Wilhelmina, sovereign of the Netherlands, a girlish queen whose popularity is as complete as her personal attraction.

In the upper left hand corner is the infant czarvitch of Russia, a lad whose nose and picture can rival any production of the American subjects. This handsome lad is destined some day to shoulder the burdensome troubles of the Russian empire.

In the lower right hand corner is another splendid type of the beauty of European matrons. Here is shown the dowager queen of Italy in her regal robes and jewels.

In the lower left hand corner appears Cecile, crown princess of Germany, another type of girlish charm. At the first glance this group would appear to be American beauties. This suggests that beauty is the same the whole world around.

MAURETANIA BROKE WORLD RECORD RUN

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The liner Mauretania, sister ship of the Lusitania, arrived off Sandy Hook at 10:30 this morning after breaking the searecord for a day's run by 6 knots.

The Mauretania make 624 knots yesterday, which is six knots better than the world's record of 618 knots made by the Lusitania.

However, the Mauretania has not broken the transatlantic record, although she has proved herself the queen of the seas.

Lusitania Ends Its Run.

QUEENSTOWN, Nov. 22.—The Cunard line steamer Lusitania, which left New York on Nov. 16, arrived here at 8:25 last evening, having made the passage in about the same time as its last eastward trip.

The tenders went out from here to meet the steamer, but owing to the heavy seas they failed to communicate with it. Two hours' maneuvering brought no success. The Lusitania then launched one of its lifeboats, transferred the Liverpool pilot and the Queenstown dispatches, and then proceeded for Liverpool without landing either passengers or mails here.

JAPAN SHAKEN BY SEVERE QUAKE

TOKIO, Nov. 22.—The entire empire was shaken by an earthquake this morning, affecting points as far north as Hokkaido, the northernmost island of the Archipelago, and as far south as the Bonin Islands. One thousand miles of the coast was affected.

COMMITTEE TONIGHT.

On account of the Congressional men's coffee the meeting of the local patronage committee of the Manufacturers and Jobbers' association was postponed until 7:30 this evening, at which time a report will be prepared at the La Crosse club, to be rendered in the near future.

PRIZE FIGHT LEADS TO OFFICER'S ARREST

DES MOINES, Nov. 22.—Adjutant General Thrift of the Iowa National guards, will arrest Captain Kulp of Davenport and courtmartial him for disobeying the order preventing the McFarland-Herman fight last night. Conviction means a dishonorable discharge. Governor Cummins has been told that Kulp and the soldiers witnessed the fight.

After the receipt of Gov. Cummins' order that the fight should be stopped the militia was called together and went to the auditorium which was surrounded. None was allowed to enter and the news spread like wild fire that the fight had been stopped. Sports gamblers in disgust knotted about the street corners.

The managers of the bout refused to announce it was off, and kept the wires with the state capital hot trying to arrange a compromise. Along about 10:30 someone announced a compromise with the governor had been reached and the doors were thrown open and the crowd rushed in.

Before 11:30 the fight was on. No one knew where the orders to permit the fight to proceed came from and they are supposed to be "fake."

"Packy" McFarland proved his superiority over "old" Herman and his right to go with George Mennis or the best of them by easily beating Herman in a fifteen-round fight without a decision. No decision was awarded because of Gov. Cummins' order to the militia to prevent a fight. In the last few rounds a knockout seemed probable any time, and when the fight ended Herman was hanging on to McFarland, who rained terrific blows at short range on Herman's back, head and face.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 22.—"Having led the party twice, and been defeated twice, I am on longer a candidate for the presidency, but if I am drafted I will not run away," said W. J. Bryan today.

INDORSEMENT FOR TOM FORRIS' JOB

GALESVILLE, Wis., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—After the close of the business session of the county board of Trempealeau county yesterday afternoon, the following resolution was introduced and unanimously adopted by that body:

Be It Resolved, That in consideration of the business ability, frankness, and integrity of our fellow member of the county board of Trempealeau county, it is the sentiment of this board that Frank George would make a splendid member of the legislature, being unusually qualified for that office. That if we could forget party and partisan strife, he would be the logical candidate for state senator.

Frank George is a well known Trempealeau county man and has been prominent in the republican party for many years, at one time serving as chairman of the county committee. He is the representative from the town of Hale, and the action of the county board in selecting him as Senator Morris' successor without a dissenting vote show how highly he is esteemed by that body. The action of the board was a surprise to the public, as much as it was to Mr. George.

GANS AND NELSON WRANGLE ON MATCH

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 22.—Joe Gans, champion welterweight, and his defeated rival, Battling Nelson, are trying to close a match here today. At one time in the forenoon it was reported that they had reached terms as follows: Nelson would guarantee a purse of $35,000, winner to take 75 per cent, loser 25 per cent. The articles were not signed, however, and at a later hour the fighters and their managers were still wrangling.

YANKTON SHERIFF HERE FOR KRIEGER

CHARGED WITH OBTAINING MONEY FALSELY

ISSUE HABEAS CORPUS WRIT

Technicality in Service Renders it
Void, but Settlement Is Made in the Case

Charles Krieger, arrested here and held on a fugitive warrant on complaint of William Hickey, sheriff of Yankton county, South Dakota, was liberated here today after making a settlement of the case. Krieger was arrested by the local police a few nights ago, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, the alleged crime having been committed in Yankton.

Yesterday Sheriff Heykie arrived here after "his man," but Krueger secured the services of Attorney Frank Withrow and began a fight for liberty. Habeas corpus proceedings were resorted to, after Krieger had refused to return to Yankton with Sheriff Hickey, the writ being served on the police. A warrant was sworn out after the writ was served.

This morning before Court Commissioner John A. Daniels the habeas corpus proceedings were held, the prisoner being held because the fees for serving it had not been paid. At noon District Attorney Otto Bosshard and Attorney Withrow informed Commissioner Daniels that they desired to abate the case. Accordingly Krieger was given his liberty.

The attorneys admitted afterward that Krieger had made a settlement, paying two $40 notes.

Krieger has been employed at the Josten Hardware company and was arrested by Detectives Coady and Taylor. There were two charges. One was where the man had obtained money upon organ and a cook stove, and the other where he borrowed money upon his furniture.

Last evening the parents of defendant Ernest Krieger notified Attorney Withrow of what was to be done and Constable Ommerberg was called out in the wee hours of the morning to serve a writ of habeas corpus.

Ommerberg appeared at the police station and served the writ on Night Desk Sergeant Post.

The young man has been employed here about a month and is married.

MR. ROOSEVELT WILL IGNORE MR. BREWER

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 22.—Justice Brewer reiterated last evening that part of his speech at New York which bore upon the "game of hide and seek," which he said President Roosevelt is now playing with the country. He added that there was no reason why his speech should attract any special attention, for the whole country knew that what he had said is so.

With the reflection of the learned judge that in the light of history the constitutionmakers would have done better to have left the presidential term of seven years in the document with accompanying ineligibility, there is reason to believe the president was not particularly wounded, although the newspaper reports said this statement was applauded. Seven years is approximately the term President Roosevelt will have served March 4, 1909, and he has heard too many things of the same sort from the reactionary press, which is so afraid the present incumbent may try to dictate the continuance of progressive policies, to be troubled by Justice Brewer's remark.

If a thing was intended in the declaration that a president never should take offense on an implied promise and then repudiate that promise; that "such conduct is political treachery, and a traitor is always despicable," it fails to elicit any howl of pain in the white house. In short, it was intimated that the white house would permit no personal controversy with a member of the supreme court over political differences, and it was also intimated that, aside from the question of dignity involved, there was a certain regard for the age of Justice Brewer—he now being 70, which is several years beyond the age at which retirement from the bench is legalized.

There has been a lot of speculation as to what Justice Brewer referred to in the line of the president's actions when he spoke of the repudiation of "implied promises" and "political treachery." It is wondered if he had in mind the treatment of E. H. Harriman by the present administration.

GIVES WOMAN PENSION.

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 22.—Andrew Carnegie has awarded a pension of $30 a month to Ida Lewis Williams, the noted woman lifesaver, who for years has rescued men, women and children from the waters of the Rhode Island coast.

MRS. BRADLEY MAY HAVE BEEN INSANE

TESTIMONY OF WITNESSES INDICATES UNSTABLE MIND

FAMILY HISTORY IS BAD

Father and Grandfather Not Strong
Mentally and Woman's Conduct
Was Not Balanced.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 22.—Testimony today gave strong indication to the probability that Mrs. Bradley was suffering from mental aberration when she killed Senator Brown. If not quite insane, the inference that she is a monomaniac so far as the subject of Brown is concerned, seems to be a fair one to draw from the evidence.

The crowds at the doors this morning awaiting admission were not materially less than those of previous days, and the large percentage of women continued.

Judge Henry Henderson, Brown's law partner, testified that he had stepped between when the defendant sought an interview with Mrs. Brown.

"The defendant was dominated by two absolutely inconstant sets of emotions; one of gloom, the other of cheerfulness, when she spoke of Brown these alternate suddenly," said the witness.

Arthur Barnes, assistant attorney general of Utah, this morning resumed his testimony concerning Mrs. Bradley's relation with Brown. He said he told the defendant he did not think Brown intended to marry her. He said: "I believe the defendant was sane on every subject but Brown."

Henderson Sobbed.

Henderson admitted sobbing when he learned of the relations of the defendant and Brown. Attorney Baker tried to show Brown was intoxicated when he signed the papers acknowledging the marriage. Attorney Sam King was recalled and said the defendant was on the verge of a collapse when he advised her to "pass Brown up."

Family History Bad.

Lyman S. Shreve, postmaster of Bonnie Doon, Santa Cruz county, California, described the condition of the defendant's father, who was partly paralyzed, the erratic actions of her grandfather, and the apparent insanity of her aunt.

Refused to Compromise.

Maj. Samuel A. King and Col. H. H. Kaighn, both Salt Lake attorneys who had interviewed Mrs. Bradley for Brown in 1902 with the object of getting her to compromise with him for a money consideration, testified that she had refused to do so. Col. Kaighn said that Mrs. Bradley had told him the entire story of her relationship with Brown and had insisted that when he first began to make advances toward her she repelled him.

Col. Kaighn further said that Mrs. Bradley at one time came to him in a frenzy and charged him with being a friend of Arthur Brown. She had said to him then that Brown was abusing her and her family frightfully; that Brown had three illegal operations performed on her, and was scandalizing her for not submitting to a fourth.

The trial was adjourned for the day at 3:07 o'clock, with Albert R. Barnes, assistant attorney general of Utah, on the stand.

SAYS TEDDY WANTS IT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Dr. Parkhurst said today: "New York people think Roosevelt is using every means to capture the nomination. The conservatives think he lacks poise. If not dignity. Hughes represents Roosevelt's ideas without the Roosevelt radicalism. Hughes would make a great president."

UNIVERSITY MANAGERS SORE

Think Philanthropists' Scheme Will Make Football a Non-Commercial Proposition in Time

PITTSBURG, Nov. 22.—Andrew Carnegie has started out to eliminate the commercial spirit from the game of football, and as a first move will bring the Lehigh university team to Pittsburgh to play the Carnegie Technical team on Thanksgiving. He will offer this attraction to the people of Pittsburgh absolutely free. It is expected Carnegie will cut deep into the receipts of the W. U. P.-Pennsylvania State college game booked for Pittsburgh at day. The Carnegie school does not seem to care for that, but is advertising the same as if big money is to be made out of it. The movement worries the other teams, which have been making big money out of football.

Director Hammerschlag, who is accepted here as the representative of Carnegie in matters pertaining to the technical schools, said last evening:

"It is the intention of the Carnegie schools to cultivate the real spirit of sport, if possible, and eliminate the gate receipts idea so far as possible. With the less of gate receipts there will be better football, better college sports of all kinds and also less injury to players, for the gate receipts make it possible for the colleges practically to hire players to make their team better than some other one. In this way strong, full-grown men often are pitted against small boys, and football injury follows."

"The Carnegie schools taking the initiative against gate receipts will have sport for sport's sake. We expect to pay the expenses by the sale of the programs. There is a feeling against gate receipts and semi-professional football in eastern colleges, too, and it would not be a matter of surprise to find next season that some of the big colleges will have at least one day's free playing game so their friends can come and see them without having to pay for it. In taking this stand against admission to games I am not taking a stand against football, for I like it and think it the leading American game."

STAR BACK PLAYS
AGAINST INDIANS

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 22.—Capt. Leo De Tray of the Maroon eleven said today that he would play against Carlisle Saturday if he had to wear a wooden leg. His injured ankle is not as bad as at first reported, although he did not take part in practice either today or yesterday. While not a particularly showy player, De Tray is one of the most valuable backs that ever played on a Chicago team. His loss would be one of the greatest blows to the eleven, and the report that he would play greatly cheered the fans. Aside from De Tray's injury both teams are in excellent conditions. Carlisle is favored in the betting at odds of 5 to 3. It is thought these will go to 2 to 1 by Saturday.

GIRLS MUST LIVE

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 22.—At a meeting of the self government association of the University of Wisconsin last night the following resolution was adopted by the girls of the university after a long discussion:

"Resolved that after September, 1908, no woman of the university shall occupy a room in a house where men are located except by special permission of the dean of women."

Mrs. Cora Stranahan Woodward, dean of the women, said after the meeting that there had been no occurrence recently which led to the action but that it was believed to be generally beneficial.

OFFER $200 REWARD
FOR OLD MURDERER

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Nov. 22.—The county board today passed a resolution offering $200 for the capture of the murderer of William Anderson, a wealthy logger in this city fifteen years ago. Mayor Frayley recently received a letter from a Montana man who has a clue to the murderer but would not act unless paid a reward. The dead man was a relative to Assemblyman Geranahan who in a speech to the board today said that Governor Davidson had assured him that a $500 reward would be offered on behalf of the state when the local authorities acted. It is thought the murderer will now be apprehended. The case attracted wide attention years ago when Anderson was found murdered on the river bank.

The game scheduled to be played between the first and second teams at the League park had to be called off last evening because of the wet field and disagreeable weather, and instead Coach Savage took the team to the high school gymnasium where two hours of fast signal work was gone through. The new plays and formations that are being used by the team are proving very effective against the second eleven. The players are getting down to hard work and mastering the plays to perfection, which will aid considerably against the Sparta team on Thanksgiving.

Up to the present time no game has been scheduled for next Saturday. Manager Davis has communicated with Onalaska and West Salem for games, but nothing definitely has been decided upon, although one of the two places will probably be picked. If no game can be arranged with an out of town team the second team will line up against the alumni. A hard game for Saturday is not looked for by the coaches, as they do not want any of the players injured before the Sparta game. The team is now in good condition. All the players are reporting every night and seem to be in the best of spirits.

Appetite—None

The Woeful Reflections of a Withered Dyspeptic.

No substitute for good nature has yet been found. Smiles take root in the stomach. Without good digestion there never can be very much sunshine, for the very simple reason that the stomach and the brain are twins, and what affects one invariably affects the other. The adage that the best road to a person's heart is via the stomach, still holds good.

Gorged grub and pappy pie always breed gloom and sleepless nights.

They also breed dyspepsia—quick dyspepsia, and dyspepsia shows itself in a variety of ways,—belching, burning sensation, an empty feeling in the stomach, bloating after eating, brash, aversion to food, fermentation, or downright indigestion.

There are few diseases which create such misery,—long drawn out misery,—as dyspepsia. It pursues you before meals, after meals, and between meals; you take it to bed with you; it is with you at the theatre and at your desk.

What is the only way to get rid of it?

You don't have to stop eating, you don't have to diet. Just take something that will do the work of the stomach and let the stomach take a rest.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the most wonderful little tablets on earth for this very thing.

In plain arithmetic, 1 of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets = 1 good strong stomach for 1 time for 1 good hearty meal. One ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest perfectly 3,000 grains of food in just the same way that a strong, robust, healthy stomach would do it.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets enrich and increase the gastric juice in your stomach, and that is mostly what you need,—more and better gastric juice. And it gives the stomach a rest, a good long rest. In the meantime it cures the dyspepsia, and all other stomach troubles.

Just a few of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will prove to you what these little cherubs of health and happiness can do.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale at all druggists at 50c a box.

OUTS DE PRACTICE STOPPED

And in the Try-Outs the Fast Work
Seen at Madison Does Not Make Itself Evident.

SPARTA, Wis., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—After futile efforts on the part of the coaches to get fast work out of the high school team that will play La Crosse Thanksgiving day, it was decided to hold practice in the armory from now until the weather permits outside work.

The field was covered with snow and mud and despite the efforts of 200 enthusiastic rooters to brace the team up, little of the form displayed at Madison last Saturday was noticeable.

Jefferson who has piloted his team to victory all season in his position at quarter was confined to his room with the mumps. Hatch, who is the sub-quarter did not appear in a suit, and although no information could be obtained from the coaches it is surmised that he is not in good shape and will not be able to practice any more this week.

Ayers, a new man who has been out all season was tried at left end and appears fast, but has little experience in the position. However, if Hatch and Jefferson are not in the best shape Thanksgiving, Ayers will have to be substituted.

Although the situation has cast gloom over the football fans of the city, preparations are being made for the big mass-meeting that will be held Wednesday night.

A great deal of criticism was heard on the streets today for allowing the team to give up outside practice but the coaches seem to theorize that the team has had experience enough during the season and merely need a stiff signal practice to keep the players in shape until the game.

GAME TOMORROW

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Milwaukee alumni of the University of Wisconsin will be out at Madison in full force tomorrow to witness the great game of the season—Wisconsin vs. Minnesota. Milwaukee alumni are expressing disgust at the condition of things in the matter of school spirit, and they promise to "show the undergraduates something" in the line of rooting.

Local Chicago alumni are interested in the Carlisle-Chicago game in the Windy City tomorrow. Beloit and Lawrence alumni will go to Appleton to see the final game of the season for both institutions.

ELKS BILLIARD TOURNAMENT PLANNED

Initial steps, leading to a billiard tourney in the local lodge of Elks, were taken at the bi-weekly meeting last night, when a committee, consisting of E. E. Irvine, Dr. E. A. Gatterdam, John C. Burns, Lester Keene and E. C. Raymond, was appointed to take charge of the affair. The committee will meet at once, and formulate plans to begin the contests by Dec. 1.

Already twenty-five members of the local order have pledged themselves to join in the tourney, while five or ten more of the players are expected to hand in their applications by the end of the week. Included in the club are several of the best players in the city, and an exciting tournament appears assured.

The tourney will be in the nature of a handicap affair, the committee fixing the handicaps. This work will be done as soon as possible, that play may begin early in December.

Mr. Keene himself gives them out. It makes the greatest total winning ever made by one stable of thoroughbreds in the history of horse racing.

Mr. Keene is an interesting figure. Not only is he the prince of horse racers of the continent, but he is also one of the most spectacular speculators on Wall street.

THE "UNWRITTEN" (BANKING) LAW.

Banker Walsh has offered a novel plea in defense of his alleged embezzlement of $14,000,000. It is that if a banker violates the banking laws in order to possess himself of the cash of his depositors, and if he successfully invests it, he ought to be held by the courts to be immune.

Now that's fair enough—to the banker. He takes his depositors' money without their knowledge and consent and in violation of the laws made to protect depositors. He invests it in speculative enterprises. If his gamble wins anywhere from 6 per cent to 600 per cent, it is all his and his depositors get anywhere from the nothing he pays them on open account to the maximum of 3 per cent he pays them on savings and C. D. accounts. If he loses, why that is a business chance which he is willing to share with the depositors with whom he shared none of the profits when he won.

Truly, Mr. Walsh is attempting the establishment of an "unwritten law" of high finance. However, from this distance one fails to see the application of the Walsh idea to the Walsh case. It has not been understood that Mr. Walsh proved a lucky gambler.

SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE ONLY.

Mr. Cortelyou undoubtedly will come through the current and now waning period of financial stress with greatly enhanced reputation—a much bigger man in the public rating than most people thought he was. Mr. Cortelyou, like Secretary Hitchcock, is not strong in the art of self-puffery. Throughout his official career as a quiet, busy man, he has had no time for self-exploitation and no inclination for the limelight. Heretofore the few who realized the kind of work he was doing for the public and the mettle the unassuming man really had in him, and ventured to speak out, have been met in some quarters with skepticism and cheap rallery about the "former stenographer."

That is what the Milwaukee Sentinel said about Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou in an editorial in its issue of Nov. 21. And on the previous day it published on its front page a cartoon in which Irvine I. Lenroot of Superior was pictured as standing at a gate leading into the precincts of the republican party and barring therefrom Senator Aldrich and Senator Foraker. AND IN MR. LENROOT'S POCKET THERE WAS DRAWN A PROTRUDING SCROLL LABELED IN LARGE LETTERS, "STENOGRAPHIC TABLET."

Funny, isn't it? But then, you see, it happened in the Milwaukee Sentinel.

ONLY ONE OF THE WONDERS.

Wonderful how the band wagon attracts the crowd. Outside his close followers there have been few men, and papers, to take seriously the candidacy of Senator La Follette for the republican presidential nomination. It was regarded as a "purely local" sentiment, a "favorite son" movement.

But the other day 400 (perhaps not THE 400) republican politicians and leading citizens of Minnesota sat down to a banquet in honor of "Bob" and his "boom." Such men as Senator Clapp, big enough to be prominently mentioned as a vice-presidential possibility, were there. And it was an immensely enthusiastic, a "rousing" if you please, meeting.

And lo! In a day this man La Follette is a topic of talk. He is even cautiously admitted by the "conservatives" to have a "chance." All of course, because he sat down at a banquet with the cream of a great state's politicians and did not eat with his knife or commit some equally fatal political blunder.

Just what Senator La Follette's chances are is problematical. They may be slim; they may be fair. Certainly he has no "cinch." But the wonder is that the men who have fought him to their own defeat in this state repeatedly with all the money and corporation machinery on their side and nothing but the right on his side, should marvel at the "hit" he has made in Minnesota. They should have known from bitter experience that the senator is one of the shrewdest politicians of the decade, and that when he started chasing the "busy bee" there would be something doing. That little affair over in Minnesota is but one of the many of its sort that are likely to be chronicled within a year or so. If that little dinner was a wonder, there is genuine astonishment in store.

A FLAGRANT WRONG.

If the accusation made by the secretary of the treasury that the New York banks which cried so loudly to the government for help when the currency shortage was threatening them with disaster are now themselves hoarding the wealth provided for their relief by the government, or are employing it in stock speculation inspired by the unreasonably low prices at present quoted on gilt edged stocks that cannot fail to revive, is true, they are guilty of conduct so reprehensible as to invite the most drastic measures within the power of the government to make them disgorge.

Perhaps the government has no such power, and in that case the country must continue to suffer for their criminal greed. However, it will be too bad if so flagrant a breach of trust must go without its authors meeting a righteous retribution. Until the contrary is shown to be true, it will be fervently hoped that in the power and ingenuity of government will be found some force to exact just and honorable conduct from institutions whose creation under government authority should render them subject to its just direction. When the national treasury was opened to succor these frightened institutions there was in the transaction an implied contract that the funds so afforded should be used to such end as best to relieve the whole public of which the money is the property. Disregard of that honorable intimation by the banks that were the immediate beneficiaries of the act is conduct grossly and impudently dishonest. The rascality of pigish financiers should not be tolerated to the detriment of the public which their licensed companies are presumed to serve.

Mrs. Hartje having won her case in a court of last resort, it now may be expected that Mr. Hartje will relieve the country of his noise and confine his annoyance to a continuance of his contribution to the bad odor of Pittsburg.

Relative to the incident in which Brown's "Little Mint Julep" knocked his teeth out with an umbrella, Mrs. Bradley offers the extenuating circumstance that his teeth weren't very good, anyway.

SECRETARY BENNETT IN ACTION

(Chicago Tribune.)

Charles Goodwin Bennett of New York, secretary of the senate, is one of the handsomest men at the capitol, even during the sessions of congress. He was a member of the house for four years, and upon being defeated for re-election was elected secretary of the senate in 1900. He swaggers about the senate chamber in a nonchalant fashion, and the guides are frequently appealed to by visitors of the opposite sex to tell them who that "distinguished looking man" is, that one of such youthful appearance. One day a senator was asked what Bennett did.

"Nothing," was the response. "He is an employee of the senate."

"Assistant to an inventor? Oh, how delightful!" the young man cried.

"Salary a hundred a month. Hours 10 to 4. Is it a go?" inquired the other.

"Well, rather," said the young man. "And what," he added, lightly, "will my duties be?"

"The simplest," was the answer. "I am an inventor of aeroplanes, and you will merely have to go up in my various new machines."

SPOTLIGHTS

Gorton's Minstrels.

The company possessing capable performers, modern and progressive ideas, a combination of all that is essential in pleasing its patrons is the one sure to gain success. Desirous of providing the class of entertainment demanded by modern theater goers, the management of Gorton's Minstrels have outdone all previous efforts. A sextette of trained vocalists render the latest ballads and selections. The instrumental music and various specialties fully sustain the reputation of the company, and there is no doubt of their being greeted with crowded houses. The company will appear at La Crosse theater tomorrow afternoon and evening.

"A Prince of Sweden."

No one should miss the opportunity of seeing Carl Carlson as the Prince of Sweden that will appear at the La Crosse theater, matinee and night, Sunday, Nov. 24. The play is a deeply interesting story well put together in a series of charming scenes with all special scenery and cleverly acted by an admirably balanced company of comedians, comedienne, singers and dancers, and is different from all other Swedish comedies.

Mildred Holland.

Mildred Holland as Lolita in "A Paradise of Lies," a powerful and beautiful romantic drama of sunny Italy at the end of the eighteenth century, written by Matthew Barry, and produced under the direction of Edward C. White, will be the attraction at the La Crosse theater on Monday, Nov. 25.

The coming of Miss Holland to this city is always one of the theatrical events of the season, and her visit this year more than ever promises to be one real big treat for her local friends and admirers.

Walker Whiteside.

Walker Whiteside, the really splendid actor who is now being starred under the Liebler & Co. banner, and who is to come to La Crosse theater in his new play, "The Claim of Blood," on Tuesday, Nov. 24, first appeared in the theatrical world in 1893, when he began an engagement at the old Union Square theatre, New York, playing "Hamlet." He is said by competent critics to give the best portrayal of Hamlet on the American stage since the days of Edwin Booth. In many respects his characteristics of the melancholy Dane follows closely on the lines laid down by his famous predecessor. Both of slender physique, they have depended on an intellectual rendition of the part and not on a robust personality to carry them through. Mr. Whiteside has appeared for a number of years in Shakespearean roles.

TILLMAN AS A PUFFER.

(Washington D. C. Star.)

Let no man now say that Mr. Tillman is without a sense of diplomacy. Observe him at Danville, Ill., among the friends and neighbors of Mr. Cannon, confidently predicting the nomination of Uncle Joe for the presidency. Was not that the thing to do? Mr. Tillman who does not love Mr. Roosevelt, might have expressed suspicion of the latter's third-term declaration, as many democrats are doing. But he counted Mr. Roosevelt out, and picked Mr. Cannon. How much of a prophet Mr. Tillman remains to be seen. Maybe his words would have conveyed more comfort to Mr. Cannon's neighbors if they had not been followed by an appraisal of Mr. Bryan of the most extravagantly complimentary character. The man who considers that Mr. Bryan is fitted above all of his fellows for conducting the affairs of this country may not be a good judge of a political situation. It was but a "jolly" as to Mr. Cannon. Was the same as to Mr. Bryan?

JUST LIFE.

Often when we see a high nose, and, in another direction a good face, we are reminded that one is likely making history connection with which the likes of the other will plume themselves upon for generations to come.

Over-confidence often deals in defects.

A double chin doesn't necessarily denote what two chins might.

"Sassed" the Reporter.

A day or so ago, in Chicago, a reckless young scion of wealth with an auto and inclinations for fast company and chorus girls, ran into an electric car.

Reporters were "on the job."

The young high-flyer cursed the reporters and threatened to shoot them "if a word was put in the paper about it."

This, appearing in the Inter-Ocean next day, is what the young blood got for his fact, and what made him the laughing stock of Chicago:

"Be very careful not to say anything about the accident to Mr. D. J. Young's automobile at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, and simultaneously to Mr. Young, two young women late from the chorus at the Whitney opera house, and a young man, when the auto ran into a Forty-third street electric car at Grand boulevard."

"For, if you mention it, Mr. Young will shoot you. He said so last night when he was asked about the unfortunate event."

"That seems about all that Mr. Young did know of the accident. Perhaps he knew the names of the young women, although they were not using their right names when they talked with the policemen after the collision."

"But he apparently did not know their address, for he had driven his car as far south as Forty-third street, although the young women live at 1149 Indiana avenue, and they were on their way home, and it was late."

"All of which ignorance seems strange on the part of the belligerent Mr. Young, in view of the facts that he was in the front seat of the car up to the time that it was intercepted by the electric car; that they had all been to the theater together, and after that to a cafe, and that he was supposed to be taking the girls home. It would almost seem that he must at least have known the address. Perhaps he was going to learn that later."

"But all that he would say was that he would shoot."

"One of the late chorus girls, nominally known as Miss Villa Marceau, was thrown through the glass wind break and picked up unconscious, with severe lacerations of the face. The other, known as Mrs. E. A. Gibson, sustained an injured knee."

"Mr. Young is secretary of the Carey-Lombard Lumber company, with offices at 205 La Salle street. He lives with his brother-in-law, W. P. Carey, president of the firm, at 3933 Grand boulevard. Mr. Carey had also partaken of the ignorance of Mr. Young when communicated with last night."

FASHION HINTS

5822 Nine Gored Maternity Skirt. 26 to 34 waist.

NINE GORED MATERNITY SKIRT 5822.

The need of such a skirt as this one is apparent to every woman at a glance. Various models are to be found but the one illustrated is among the latest and most practical. It means ample size and it is absolutely comfortable while the long lines give an effect of grace and slenderness that is most desirable. Striped materials are to this effect and consequently are always satisfactory but plain ones are quite correct. The only things that need to be avoided are figures and checks or anything that is pronounced in design.

The pattern 5822 is cut in sizes for a 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34 inch waist measure and will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents. (If in haste send an additional two-cent stamp for letter postage which insures more prompt delivery.)

It's an undisputed fact that some do not have any more sense than they get married than they did they were born.

THE GIANT'S STRENGTH

BY BASIL KING

(Copyrighted by Harper & Bros.)

"If they were said of your father, wouldn't they distress you?"

He leaned forward and drew the magazine gently from her hands.

"It's always well to remember," he said, in a kindly voice, "that one story is true till another is told. It's perfectly astonishing how many different versions you can get of what seems like one plain, unvarnished tale."

"Oh, yes; like the 'Ring and the book,' for instance. But this," she continued, with a little break in the voice—"this doesn't seem to me the same sort of thing. There you have different points of view, and here it's a succession of facts."

"Facts are to the writer what objects are to the painter. He produces different impressions as he presents them in different lights. The writer of these articles has chosen the atmosphere which will be most unfavorable to your father. Some one else might treat the very same incidents in a way which would give you quite another effect."

"Could any one treat them in a way that would prove that—that everything was right?"

"Suppose they couldn't," he reasoned, gently; "even so, we've one important condition to remember, and that is the imperfect conception of honor that exists in the financial world."

"I don't see why that should make any difference," she declared, with a touch of honest indignation.

"It does in this way, that it's very hard for any but the highest moral natures to be superior to the surroundings in which they live. That is, it's a phase of the much-discussed question of environment. It's even more than that. It's a phase of the far larger question of the standard of rectitude by which the human race chooses to measure its public conduct. No one can deny the fact that it's far from an ideal one. While we accept in theory the principles of honor and honesty and fair dealing and truth, we have recognized systems of not living up to them. Some of our most respected institutions would have to be made all over again, if we were to put forth any pretension to follow the Golden Rule of Christ."

The tiny furrow deepened between her brows, and she regarded him with the expression of perplexity he had not seen for so many months. She was trying to understand the strange method by which men regulated their affairs, and of which even Wiltshire spoke with tolerance.

"What institutions, for example?"

"Well—take the governments of the world as an illustration. They're fairly good governments, on the whole—most of them. And yet practically all are inspired by an insatiable greed, and the most ferocious determination to make one country's gain out of another country's loss. It's not much of an exaggeration to say that envy, hatred, and malice are the normal sentiments of every nation towards every other. You can't open a newspaper, even in the most piping times of peace, without seeing that the growling of cabinets at each other, in London, Paris, Berlin, St. Petersburg, Washington, Vienna, Tokio, and Rome, is as savage and incessant as that of a team of Esquimaux dogs. We have a whole honored profession whose duties are in the field of hoodwinking, half-truths, and evasion. We dress it up in gold lace and a cocked hat, and give it a high place in our society. We have another profession, of which the work is to shed blood and wreck homes and spread ruin. We give it a sword and a uniform, and call it noble. Now I cite these merely as examples of the way in which mankind contents itself with a defective moral standard. It's difficult to blame the soldier if he kills, or the diplomat if he equivocates, or the statesman if he crushes another people to aggrandize his own. It's what's expected. It's the way the world acts."

"I don't see that that makes it any better," she argued with feminine dislike of compromise.

"It doesn't make the act any better, perhaps, but it helps us to understand the agent. Few people question, few people are able to question the moral condition they find around them. They accept them and live in them. And," he added, significantly, "most men engaged in financial affairs do like the others."

"You mean that they conform to a low standard?"

"I'm afraid that's what I have to mean."

"And I always thought my father's standard was so high. That's what hurts me. Oh, Duke, don't think that I'm blaming him, or trying to argue against him. I oughtn't to talk of it at all, perhaps. But I'm so very unhappy, and I've no one in the world to speak to, as I can to you."

"I like you to speak to me about it. It's possible that I can help you. And in any case I know that you could never harbor a disloyal thought towards any one in the world—and least of all towards him."

"You see," she stammered, "it's all so—so ignoble."

"Doesn't it give it a somewhat different aspect when you consider that it's probably not more ignoble than what's going on in eight business houses out of ten, in London, Paris, New York, and every other great city in the world?"

"I don't see that a wrong thing becomes less wrong because a great many people do it."

"Perhaps not; and yet if we know that public opinion is wrong it helps us to make allowances for the individuals who are governed by it. And that's what I assert about the commercial and financial worlds—their moral tone is defective; their con-

DEAN SUMNER.

A counterpart for the "yellow press" is the "yellow pulpit." This is the newly coined phrase with which Dean W. T. Sumner of Chicago describes the attempt of pastors to attract attention through violent sermons and spectacular crusades. It seems too, destined to stick as a clever addition to American slangology.

Dean Sumner knows whereof he speaks. He is pastor of the Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul in the heart of Chicago's notorious "Levee district," and he does not relish the attack of Chicago ministers are making on prevailing methods of handling these fallen women. Out of these attacks has come Dean Sumner's new phrase, "the yellow pulpit."

"Vice should be segregated," he declares. "As an evidence Chicago's levee is quieter and more orderly than before in years."

He wants people who seek to handle this perplexing problem to know what they are talking about, and above all he says he devoutly hopes a "yellow pulpit" is not to be born. The direct cause of the prevailing situation is that Rev. Dr. Bartlett of the First Congregational church is preaching a series of sermons intended to arouse popular movement against the levee district.

Dean Sumner has worked long among the fallen of Chicago's toughest quarter and he says that as long as the levee exists he will consider it a privilege to work among the fallen and administer to their wants.

BOYS THREATENED TO BURN CHILD

HELD, MATCHES NEAR EDDIE ABBOTTS CLOTHES

VICTIM DREAMED OF FRIGHT

While It May Have Been a Rough Joke the Elder Abbott Seizes Warrant for Their Arrest.

A warrant for the arrest of three boys, charging that they threatened to set fire to Edward Abbott, a boy of 7 years, holding matches close to his clothing, beat and kicked him until the youngster awoke during the night in fear, was issued yesterday by Judge Brindley on complaint of the father of the youngster. The boys named in the complaint are Harry Smith, Raymond Bice and Weldon Holman. All reside north of Onalaska, near Sand Lake coulee.

The older Abbott declares his young son was kept after school, to learn his lessons, and was not dismissed until the older pupils were allowed to go. He swears Smith, Bice and Holman caught his son, and terrified him by holding matches close to his clothing, threatening to set him afire. The boys fled at the approach of a team, but not without giving their victim a parting kick.

After this performance, Abbott recites, his son frequently awoke during the night, crying out as it scared that the boys were after him. Of late his sleep has been disturbed almost every night.

The trio of "bad" boys will be arraigned before Judge Brindley Saturday and asked to explain. Assault and battery is charged.

A. E. Parkinson left a few days ago for North Crandon near Green Bay, where he will superintend the completion of a $20,000 public school.

From there he went to Minocqua where he had charge of another $20,000 public school.

At Gillett, Wis., he superintended the final work on a $25,000 school. Leaves for Milwaukee.

Bernhard J. Dockendorf of the firm left last evening for Milwaukee, from which place he will go to Manitowish and also to Whitelaw, where the firm has charge of the erection of the St. Michael's church, a $25,000 structure. The interior work for this church is being done by Egid Hackner, the altar manufacturer, also of La Crosse.

At Manitowish Mr. Dockendorf will visit Rev. J. O'Leary, who is to have a fine residence erected in Milwaukee.

PASSENGER ASS'N. ABOLISHES BUREAUS

RAILROADS WILL SEND TRAVELING MEN OUT INSTEAD.

MINISTERS PAY FULL FARE

Since State Began to Enact Cheaper Fare Laws Roads are Cutting Out Special Courtships.

Local bureaus which have been maintained by the Western Passenger association at the big centers in the territory for several years will go out of existence Jan. 1. To take the place of the several local secretaries there will be appointed three advocates who will take occasional trips through the territory, maintaining headquarters at Chicago.

The bureaus are located in the Twin Cities, Chicago, Omaha, Colorado common points (Denver, Pueblo and Colorado Springs), St. Louis and Kansas City. The local secretaries had plenty to do in the days of ticket scalpers, but the latter have been driven out of the territory, so there is no longer any necessity for watching things as closely. The railroads as well have to abide strictly by the tariffs on file at Washington, so that it is not necessary for these local agents to spy out any sharp work being done in that direction likewise.

The employment of these traveling advocates was authorized by the articles of the Western Passenger association in the first place, but they were not employed because it was found that the local secretaries were practically performing the duties of advocates.

Besides the fact that conditions have changed, the question of expense enters into the reason for the change. Instead of having half a dozen local secretaries, each maintaining separate offices and forces, under the new arrangement it will be only necessary to have one office and one clerical force in Chicago.

Jan. 1 will also see the clergy bureau in Chicago abolished. Clergy certificates are no longer issued in the territory, the roads having cut out such privileges when the states began to get busy enacting laws prescribing maximum rates.

PASSENGER TRAIN OFF AT LECLAIRE

The Burlington passenger train, which leaves Savanna at 4:40 p. m. southbound for St. Louis, due in Davenport at 6:45 p. m., met with an accident at Le Claire Tuesday evening resulting in the derailment of the engine and two coaches.

As the train was pulled into the Le Claire station, the engine jumped the track and carried two coaches with it. Both engine and coaches stood upright and fortunately no one was injured. A grounded flange on the engine wheels is supposed to have caused it to leave the track.

The passengers were placed aboard an I. & I. car and brought to Davenport. Another train was made up at Rock Island and took the place of the one stranded at Le Claire. It continued to run to St. Louis.

UTILITY BILL WAS NO MISTAKE

FRANKLIN CLUB JURY DECIDES THE QUESTION

LOCAL CASES ARE CITED

While the Bill May Have Been Felt as a Mistake Here It Is, as a General Proposition All Right

At the regular meeting of the Franklin club held last evening on the North side the question, "Resolved That the Utility Bill Passed at the Recent Session of the State Legislature Was a Mistake," was argued.

The affirmative was debated by Paul W. Mahoney, assisted by District Attorney Otto Bosshard, and W. E. Barber, and the negative by Assemblyman Miller assisted by A. L. Taylor and Senator Thomas Morris.

The jury decided two to one in favor of the negative.

The affirmative showed that under the new rule the entire thing is taken out of the hands of the people, to a certain extent, and takes the power especially away from an individual. Under the law now an association or a body of twenty-five are forced to sign a petition before they are given a hearing, and an individual can do nothing. It was the claim of the affirmative that this obstructed right and was not justice. To bring the matter a little nearer home the subject of the lighting conditions in La Crosse was taken up and proof was brought forward to show since the passing of the bill the rate in La Crosse had been doubled, and in some cases tripled, that the contracts made before the passing of the bill were void, etc.

On the other hand the negative tried to prove that the commission had in its power to regulate rates and could fix them on a fair basis.

While the general sentiment of those present seemed to be that the bill so far as local interests were concerned, was a mistake, yet the jury, after some little deliberation, decided in favor of the negative—that the bill was not a mistake.

Owing to the lateness of the hour, the question of the annual banquet to be given by the club was not discussed last evening and other than deciding to hold one nothing was done.

In all probability a special meeting will be called at which a toast to the time and place and other business of the banquet will be decided upon.

There is to be no meeting of the club next Thursday owing to the fact that it is Thanksgiving.

DEER SEASON IS A RECORD BREAKER

The present season has been a record breaker for the killing of deer, both by local, state and outside hunters. None have gone into the northern woods from La Crosse without returning with a deer and in many instances parties of from four to ten hunters have returned with two deer each. As this has been the case with almost all hunters, and as there were thousands of hunters in the woods, it can be easily estimated the vast number of deer slain. Officials say, however, that in spite of the large number of deer slain there has been very little violation of the law.

The new law in regard to the shipment of carcasses is being strictly observed. An express company can be held responsible for taking illegal shipments, and the companies are closely examining certificates of shipment which are required from hunters.

PLOW CO. PLANT AGAIN OPERATES

RUSHFORD, MINN

Rushford added two more to its ready long list of victories Saturday by defeating Lanesboro, both in football and basketball. Lanesboro, however, showed the true spirit by giving a reception to both teams and the rooters accompanying them. Rushford went to Lanesboro expecting a hard rub and the outcome was pleasing.

The basketball game began at 2 p. m. The first half was more hotly contested than the second, though Rushford had the better of the game the time. R. Kierland for Rushford, made several difficult baskets, the work of Lanesboro's center, A. McCarthy, was deserving of credit. The final score stood 28 to 14 in Rushford's favor, making Rushford the champions of Fillmore county in basketball.

The football game began at 3 p. m. with Rushford kicking off. The ball was caught on Lanesboro's 20 yard line and advanced 5 yards. By series of quick plays Lanesboro advanced the ball to her opponents 30 yard line. It was on the third down and but one foot to gain to five Lanesboro three more downs to make two yards, when Rushford's field, Lanesboro not making an inch. By a fake play Rushford made a run of 40 yards, their goal being out of danger during the rest of the half.

In the second half Rushford received the ball on the 25 yard line and advanced it 15 yards. By a series of fake plays Rushford advanced the ball to their opponents 20 yard line when they were held for downs. Lanesboro tried a forward pass, but before it was completed a Rushford end caught the ball and returned it to its starting place. Lanesboro was penalized 15 yards for an incomplete pass and with 5 yards to make for a touchdown. Sunday of Rushford, went around the end over the line. He failed at goal. Score, 5 to 0.

Rushford kicked off to the goal line, Lanesboro's half-back being forced to jump to catch the ball. By the time he could recover himself Rushford was so far down the field that he was downed on his 15 yard line. After this the ball changed hands several times but neither side could score.

The stock yard meeting at the city hall last Saturday resulted in a vigorous protest against the manner in which the railroad company has fulfilled its part of the contract. Those at the meeting have decided to make the company do as they agreed or know the reason why.

Sleep

Sleep is nature's rebuilding period, when the energy used by the brain, muscles and organs is renewed. If you lose sleep, your system is robbed of the strength sleep should give. Continued loss of sleep multiplies this loss until you become a physical wreck. Dr. Miles' Nervine quiets the irritated nerves and brings refreshing, invigorating sleep. Nervine contains no opiates, and therefore leaves no bad after-effects.

"For over two years I suffered untold agonies; my friends thought I was going crazy. I could not sleep nor rest at all. I tried different doctors, but failed to find relief. My head would ache all the time; I was like one drunk; could not concentrate my mind, and was so restless and worried that sleep was out of the question. After taking one bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine I felt wonderfully changed. I am now on my third bottle and am gaining all the time. I can lie down and sleep like a child, and am able to do my work."

MRS. MAY SCOTT, English, Ind.

Your druggist sells Dr. Miles' Nervine, and will authorize him to return price of first bottle (only) if it fails to benefit you.

EPISCOPALIANS' ANNUAL BANQUET

TOPICS RELATE TO PROSPERITY OF THE CHURCH

PROVINCE OF THE LAYMEN

Subject Ably Handled by C. E. Field, Prominent Chicagoan in an After Dinner Talk Prosperity of the Episcopal church, in La Crosse and throughout the United States, was treated by the speakers, Rt. Rev. S. C. Edsall, bishop of the Episcopal church of Minnesota, and C. E. Field, Chicago, guests of honor, and the Rev. C. N. Moller, pastor of the local church, at the annual banquet for the men of the Christ Episcopal church at the Hotel Stoddard last night. The banquet was one of the most successful ever given by the church, every arrangement to bring success, being carried out carefully.

Topics, relating to the Episcopal church, the national convention at Richmond, Va., and the ordinary duties of the member of the church, with the growth and prosperity of the La Crosse district, were discussed in a free and easy manner by the talented toastmasters.

The banquet began at 7 o'clock, the feast being served in the ordinary dining room of the hotel, which was decorated in a manner befitting the prominence of the assemblage. From 7 o'clock until 9, the time was spent in satisfying the inner man. Bishop Edsall, the principal guest of honor, and speaker of the evening, said grace when the banqueters took their place at the festal board. Following is the menu:

Blue Points
Bouillon de Lucines en tasse
Celery en branche Queen Olives
Salted Almonds
Fillet of Whitefish, a la maitre
Pommes a la Sarah Bernhardt
Tenderloin of Beef, a la Chateaubriand
Candied Sweet Potatoes

French Peas
Snowflake Potatoes
Timbale of Fruit Salad
Creme a la Glace

Prof. Reuter rendered two exquisite violin numbers during the evening. He was accompanied by Prof. Harry Packman, organist of the church. H. B. Forseth sang a delightful bass solo, which struck home to the hearts of all.

B. F. Bryant Toastmaster.

Gen. B. F. Bryant was chosen as toastmaster and officiated at the head of the table with grace and wit pleasing to all. Judge Cameron L. Baldwin was called upon first, responding briefly in behalf of the wardens and vestrymen of the church, and extending a delightful welcome to the guests from Minneapolis and Chicago.

On behalf of the La Crosse diocese the Rev. Moller was called upon for a short talk. He told of the fellowship existing in the local diocese with its 300,000 people, and twelve clergymen to serve the needs of the church and its members here. The progress of the convocation during the last two years was touched upon briefly by the pastor, while he also told of the work done in the semi-annual meetings.

The Rev. Moller said an effort is being made to increase interest of La Crosse laymen in the diocesan council, which will meet in La Crosse in May. Last year E. A. Claire, Wis., had the honor of holding the meeting, and a determined effort will be made by La Crosse to have a large delegation present.

"The Province of the Layman" was the topic of Mr. Field. The men of La Crosse have never had the opportunity of listening to such a finished speaker. In the happy manner of a successful after dinner speaker he told several stories that were not only humorous but to the point. He defined the province of a layman in reference to his power and his influence—this power in the great American church where the clergy did not absolutely dominate the laity or where the laity did not make hiring preachers of the clergy but where the layman had his proper place and his splendid opportunity. He referred to the influence of the godly laymen on the community, of his church going and his Christian character on the community, the church and his own family. He declared that every available space in the city might be plastered with the words of the Golden Rule and yet it would mean nothing compared to the Golden Rule in the hearts and in the deeds of a half dozen of our leading citizens.

Mr. Field then referred to the conditions of the province of the layman. He referred to the awakening toward new missionary work, and the organization of parochial clubs, to do good to all. This impressed the speaker of good signs of the times in the Episcopal church world. He urged those present at the banquet not to be content with paying pew rent and assisting the church financially, but to do good to others and not let a day go by without helping someone onward to better things. A word of caution against living too fast also was uttered by the speaker.

A powerful argument for missions abroad was delivered by the speaker. He told of the great work being done by the woman's auxiliary, who contributed $285,000 to the mission fund at the annual convention last year. The national convention at Rich-

SEVERELY HURT BY A FALLING BRICK

ERNEST GROSS, CARPENTER, IS STRUCK ON HEAD

MISSILE FALLS 3 STORIES

Workman, Passing Along New Wall Meets With Accident; Skull Was Not Fractured.

While walking beside the walls of the new Michel Brewing building on South Third street, about 2:15 yesterday afternoon Ernest Gross, 319 South Nineteenth street, a carpenter, who has been employed on the building was struck on the head by a brick which fell from the third story. It rendered him unconscious.

A bad gash was cut on his forehead and his nose was also cut. He was bleeding from the mouth, ear and nose when he was hurried in a hack to the office of Dr. Callahan, who took six stitches to close the wound over his forehead.

He was conscious when he arrived at the office of the surgeon, but was still bleeding from his mouth and ears when he left the office in a hack for his home.

Bystanders say that it seems miraculous that his skull was not fractured. He was resting easily at his home this afternoon.

mond, Va., was described by Bishop Edsall, the speaker furnishing an interesting description of the meeting to those who were unable to attend. Bishop Edsall told of the efforts of Bishop Satterlee of Washington to secure the construction of a large cathedral in the national capital city, the new church to typify the Episcopal church of the United States in strength and in power.

While on the road to Richmond, the speaker and his party had the good fortune to attend the laying of the foundation stone of the new church. President Roosevelt was present at the elaborate and impressive ceremony, delivering a short address.

At Jamestown a service was held on the same spot as the first Episcopal service ever given in the United States. The first church ceremony in the United States was held in 1607. Another bit of interesting history was related by the speaker. He said one-half of the signers of the Declaration of Independence held worship in the Episcopal church.

As a sign of the true missionary spirit prevalent at the national meeting, the speaker cited the raising of $1,000,000 in appropriations for this purpose. The money will be expended in spreading Christianity in Japan and in work in Episcopal seminaries and colleges.

In closing Bishop Edsall congratulated the local church on raising its debt, and extended the greetings from the Minnesota diocese for the healthy and prosperous condition of the local church community, and the church itself.

POLICE SEARCH FOR PICTURE MEN

DECEASED PEOPLE OF WINONA AND DISAPPEARED

MAY TRY TO WORK LACROSSE

Make a Price When Picture Is Taken. Then Force Sale of Cheap Frame at Outrageous Price

Police here are searching for two picture men wanted for fraud in Winona, and who may have come here to work.

Several days ago the men called at the residence of Rev. Borncamp of Winona and induced a young lady who is employed there to have a picture enlarged. It is said that the men told the young lady that the picture would cost her nothing as the work was being done for advertising purposes.

The order was given and later it was found that the young lady had signed an order in the form of a note in which she agreed to purchase a frame for the enlarged picture when it was delivered. The lady reported the matter to Rev. Borncamp and he at once took the matter up and on Wednesday afternoon the warrant was issued for the arrest of the men.

It is said that one of the men endeavored to settle the matter with Mr. Borncamp by telephone and it was agreed that Rev. Borncamp should meet the two men at the office of Brown, Abbott & Somsen at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. Rev. Borncamp was on hand at the appointed time but neither of the men appeared.

The graft which it is alleged the men worked here, is an old one. For several years certain picture men have been going through the country advertising (?) by agreeing to make enlarged pictures free of charge and thus obtaining possession of valuable photographs. When these free (?) pictures come back enlarged they are in a handsome frame and the prices of these frames run all the way from $2 to $10.

When the owner of the picture refuses to take the frame and pay for it the picture agent simply says that he won't give up the enlarged picture or the small picture from which it is made. This threat on the part of the picture man often results in the sale of the frame as the small pictures given these agents are often very valuable.

Instances have been known where women in order to secure the return of their small photographs have paid the price asked by the agents for the frame owing to the great value of the small picture which is perhaps of a dead mother, father, sister, brother or some other dear relative.

SPOONER VINDICATES THE CONSTITUTION

WARNS AGAINST THE WOULD BE "BUSTERS" OF IT.

STATES ARE ALL POWERFUL

Ex-Senator Before Chamber of Commerce Makes Striking Comments on Money and Law

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Ex-Senator Spooner's arraignment of would-be constitution "busters" was the feature of the annual banquet of the chamber of commerce at the Waldorf-Astoria last night.

A reference by Mr. Spooner to J. P. Morgan as the "uncrowned king of financiers" was loudly cheered.

Senator Spooner said in part: "I think the finest instrument, all things considered, ever conceived by human intellect, or drafted by the hand of man, is the constitution of the United States.

"There has not been a year since it was adopted which has not vindicated the ability and foresight of the men who framed it, and during all those years, in time of peace and in time of war, it has been found until within the last few years adequate for the proper government of the people of the United States.

"I do not know wherein it is now inadequate, but I do know that, if it is inadequate, it is only to be changed in the manner pointed out in the instrument by the fathers. "The creators of the constitution believed in local self-government. They believed it was the best security of commerce, protection of property, within the limitations of the federal constitution. Now it has always proved so.

"But within the last few years we have had a propaganda that, wherever the states, in the exercise of the powers not granted by them to the federal government, but reserved to the states and to the people of states by themselves, and the people did not exercise their reserved powers in a satisfactory and competent manner, constructions of the constitution would be found to deprive them of them. I look upon that as revolutionary and destructive of government founded by the fathers.

"Whether the states and the people of the states exercise their reserved powers as they should exercise them, is under the constitution of the United States to be determined only by the states and the people of the states."

HURRAH! IMMUNE THIEF IS CAUGHT

At last the lowly umbrella thief has been arrested and sentenced to jail.

For what? Just the simple theft of an umbrella, a loan, if you please. Of course, the user of the rain protector failed to return the thing, and as a consequence was arrested.

Harry Davis, a young man, addicted to the habit of pawning small articles in exchange for money to purchase drinks, felt the sting of the law for a theft which he thought was licensed by common practice. So firmly did Davis believe he was immune from prosecution on the charge of umbrella theft that he failed to remember where he left the protector.

This morning Davis entered a plea of guilty to a petit larceny charge before Judge Brindley in county court, and was given thirty days for his piffing tendencies.

The theft occurred on Wednesday morning, Davis appropriating the "pet" umbrella of Oscar Doering, proprietor of the Hotel Doering, 301-303 South Third street, during the storm, without as much as a thank-you, Davis fastened onto the umbrella, walked out of the hotel, and failed to return with the property.

Then came the arrest, prosecution, plea of guilty and sentence, thus establishing the first case of prosecution for umbrella theft in La Crosse county.

LISBON, Nov. 22.—The investigation of the explosion of an infernal machine on Nov. 18, when two anarchists were killed, a third being arrested, has revealed the existence of a huge plot against the dictatorship. Over 700 bombs have been seized and the police have made eighty arrests.

Do You Think For Yourself?

Or, Do You Open Your Mouth Like a Young Bird and Gulp Down Whatever Food or Medicine May be Offered You?

If you are an intelligent, thinking woman, in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true, honest medicine of known composition, sold by druggists for the cure of woman's ills.

The makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible indorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of medical practice, are not afraid to print, as they do, the list of ingredients, of which it is composed in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper.

The formula of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will bear the most critical examination of medical experts, for it contains no alcohol, so injurious to delicate women even in small quantities when long continued. Neither does it contain any narcotics, or other harmful, or habit-forming drugs and no agent enters into it that is not highly recommended by the most advanced and leading medical teachers and authorities of their several schools of practice. These authorities recognize the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of exactly the same ailments for which this world-famed medicine is advised by its manufacturers.

No other medicine for woman's ills has any such professional endorsement as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has received, in the unqualified recommendation of each of the several ingredients by some of the leading medical men of all the schools of practice. Is such an endorsement not worthy of your consideration? It certainly is entitled to be more weight than any number of non-professional, or lay testimonials.

A booklet of ingredients, with numerous authoritative professional endorsements by the leading medical authorities of this country, will be mailed free to any one sending name and address with request for same. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," run-down, debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the nervous system, especially of the female system.

If a woman has bearing down, or dragging pains, low down in the abdomen, or pelvis, backache, frequent headache, dizzy or fainting spells, is nervous and easily startled, has gnawing feeling in the stomach, sees imaginary floating spots or spots before her eyes, has melancholy or "blues," or a weakening disagreeable drain from pelvic organs, she can make no mistake by resorting to the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It will invigorate and tone up the whole system and especially the pelvic organs.

No woman suffering from any of the above symptoms can afford to accept a secret nostrum or medicine of unknown composition, as a substitute for a medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is of known composition and has a record of over forty years and so many largely to-day than ever before. Its makers withhold no secrets from the patients, believing open publicity to be the very best guaranty of merit.

Dr. Pierce invites all suffering women to consult him by letter free of charge. All letters of consultation are held in a sacredly confidential and an answer is returned in plain sealed envelope. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's great thousands-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. They are the original Little Liver Pills having been put out for sale by old Dr. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equalled. One to three a dose. Tiny sugar-coated granules; easy to take as candy.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a most potent alternative or blood-purifier, and tonic, or invigorator, and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels (as mucous diarrhoea), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections, it is often successful in affecting cures.

So Many People Here Can Be Cured of Stomach Troubles by Mixing and Taking This Simple Prescription.

There are so many people who suffer from Stomach Troubles that the following prescription of a noted Stomach Specialist will be highly appreciated by all those who suffer. Get from any Drug Store one ounce Compound Tincture of Cinchona; one ounce Prose Compound and half a pint of good Sherry Wine. Mix these together in a bottle and take a teaspoonful before meals and at bed time in a wineglass of water. This Specialist claims that there are few cases of Indigestion, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia that this simple home made mixture will not cure. This Specialist claims that Indigestion and Dyspepsia are caused by the failure of the Gastric Juices to do their work, and he says that it is the Prose Compound in this Prescription that is the most valuable. It increases the Gastric Juices, and in fact is as near to artificial Gastric Juice as science has been able to get. The Cinchona and Sherry Wine act as a Stimulating Tonic. If you suffer from Stomach Troubles try this simple mixture, or maybe you have some friend who is a sufferer, if so, you will do him a great favor by cutting this out and handing it to him.

MANY ALIENS RUSH BACK TO EUROPE

NUMBER OF RETURNING FOREIGNERS BREAKS RECORDS

SOME GO BACK EVERY YEAR

But Number for 1907 Will Exceed All Other Years by About 200,000.

(By J. C. Welliver.)
Washington Bureau of The La Crosse Tribune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 22. An unusually heavy exodus to Europe on the part of aliens is taking place this fall. For some reason, these people are streaming back to their native lands in numbers much above the average. This is the information that is reaching the bureau of immigration officials.

It will cause no surprise here if the returns when compiled show that 200,000 more aliens than usual returned to Europe this season. So far, there are no returns in the office of Commissioner General Sargent of the Bureau of Immigration that show how heavy the increased return tide is. The steamship companies have sixty days to report the number of steerage passengers they ship from this country and hence final returns on the migration to Europe will not be obtainable until well along in the winter. All the immigration officials know is that many more are going away than is customary and that the big steamships are overcrowded, not only as to immediate sailings but on bookings for weeks to come.

For several weeks this exodus of immigrants has continued. It began this fall earlier than it does ordinarily. It is expected to continue until after the Christmas holiday period. At the rate the exodus is now going on it will take a good many millions of dollars from the country.

Immigration officials regard the outflow of immigrants as directly related to the fact that the railroad companies and various business concerns are laying off more men than usual. Immigration in recent years has been extremely heavy, employment plentiful and wages good. Now that more men than usual are forced into idleness, the effect is a heavier migration to the old country.

Every autumn there is a large exodus of aliens, especially of Italians and other peoples from southern Europe, who have been employed in the northern part of the United States. They do not like the winters here and so they go back to their European homes, live there through the winter and in the great majority of cases start again for America in the spring. While for climatic reasons the departure for southern Europe in the fall of the year is large, a great many immigrants from northern Europe go back to their old homes for the December holidays and a part of the winter season.

THE WELLS WE FIND IN LIFE

The meeting at the First Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday evening, hile not large on account of the storm, was the best yet in the series. Dr. Crowder preached from the text, "Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God and who it is that saith unto thee: Give me to drink; thou wouldst

Are Fat Women Always Married to Thin Men?

"Watch the four o'clock promenade on Fifth Avenue, New York, or along Rotten Row in London and you will be struck by the circumstance that every fat woman is accompanied by a thin man, while every fat man has a lean and, usually, tall woman by his side," said a world-renowned form and beauty specialist recently, to a gathering of artists and newspaper men in a Broadway cafe. "The effect is grotesque and every artistic sense is offended by the lop-sided, top-heavy, overbalanced appearance of such a couple. It is an entirely unnecessary offense, too, on the part of the fat person, at least," continued the beauty expert, for getting rid of an excess of fat is a very simple matter. Most people think they must punish themselves with a slim diet and lots of the hard, distasteful work called exercise, in order to do so, but that is a mistake. As a matter of fact, there is a simple mixture of common, wholesome, harmless household remedies, that if put together in the right quantities and taken in teaspoonful quantities after each meal and at bedtime, will take off from half a pound to one pound a day from either man or woman without causing wrinkles, interfering with their diet in any shape or form, or requiring any gymnastics to help it out. This mixture consists of 1/2 oz. Marmola, 1/2 oz. Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatica, and 3 1/2 ozs. Syrup Simplex. The Marmola should be obtained in an original unbroken 1/2 oz. package, and mixed with the other two ingredients by shaking the three together in a large bottle, at home. Most fat people never heard of this effective home recipe, however, and so, thinking they must diet and must exercise to get thin (which is not true and not good advice, either) they will do neither and so continue fat and porpoiselike, a travesty and caricature of the human form divine. One fat newspaper worker in the group was seen taking notes, however, and the chances are this paragraph is the result.

THANKSGIVING IN THIS FAMILY

"I firmly believe Father John's Medicine saved my wife from an early grave, and restored her to her young family," says Mr. Cornelius O'Brien of 189 Charles St., East Cambridge, Mass. "For eighteen months, Mrs. O'Brien suffered from nervous prostration, and the several medicines recommended by her doctor did her no good. On a friend's advice, she began taking Father John's Medicine, and at once began to improve. She has now regained her health and says she will never lose faith in Father John's Medicine." Mr. O'Brien was recently cured of a serious cold by this old remedy. He gives Father John's Medicine to the babies to keep them fat and rosy, and says: "No family should be without a bottle of Father John's Medicine."

have asked of him and he would have given three living waters."—John 4:10. It was a very helpful and effective sermon.

The speaker told of the circumstances attending the preaching of one of the greatest sermons of the greatest preacher to a congregation of one at the well of Sychar and explaining that the living water is the permanent and full satisfaction of the Christian life. He then told of the wells God has placed along the pathway of life, describing beautifully the pleasure of drinking from the well of health, the well of wealth, the well of friendship, the well of home, and showed in a striking manner how each one of these wells sooner or later would dry up. They are not living wells but are comparatively shallow and uncertain.

Rev. A. M. Ivey, superintendent of the city mission, made the opening prayer, while A. D. Jackson and J. W. Earle, two prominent laymen from Minneapolis, took part in the service.

The announcement was made of the men's mass meeting for Sunday at 3 p. m. and of the fact that Superintendent of City Schools John P. Bird would preside on that occasion. Dr. Crowder has had much experience in speaking to men in various parts of this country and Canada and will be able to interest and benefit the men who attend. His topic will be "The Thing that Men Ought to Do." A male quartette will lead the singing. Meetings will be held every evening this week including Saturday, while next week there will be preaching services twice a day, at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

Announcement was made that on Friday cottage prayer meetings would be held at 3 p. m. at the following homes:

ACTED FOR CITY'S GOOD, CASE NOLLED

MANITOWOC, Wis., Nov. 22.—Refusal of city officials, who caused the arrest of Thomas Higgins, president, and James Phair, superintendent of the Manitowoc, prompted District Attorney Kelly to move for a dismissal of the action against them and the court ordered the case quashed today. The district attorney stipulated that no costs be taxed to the county which will compel the city in whose name the action was brought, to pay them.

The arrest of Mr. Higgins was made after he had removed an obstruction in the Eighth street bridge which prevented cars from passing over. There was a controversy over the question of allowing cars to pass over until certain repairs were made to the structure, the city maintaining the traction company should repair the latter holding the city responsible for the work.

The climax was reached when the council passed a resolution authorizing an obstruction placed on the bridge and Higgins tore it away. He was then arrested.

$1,000 DAMAGES FOR ACHING HEART

WAUKESHA, Wis., Nov. 22.—A jury in the county court yesterday awarded Miss Annie F. Krebs of this city $1,000 damages against Deputy Sheriff Leonard F. Leintz of North Prairie, for breach of promise. The jury was out four hours. The plaintiff's fee for $10,000.

Miss Krebs alleged that in April, 1906, while she was residing with her sister, Mrs. George Sugden at Genesee, the defendant proposed marriage to her and was accepted. Subsequently the defendant told her that his relatives objected to his "keeping company" with her because two of her sisters had been divorced and a few months later he married another woman.

CARFERRY WRECKED BUT REACHES PORT

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 22.—After being buffeted in the violent storm which prevailed on Lake Michigan on Wednesday night, Pere Marquette carferry, No. 16, chartered by the Lake Michigan Carferry Transportation company, arrived in this port yesterday morning a floating wreck. The breaking up of the vessel and its cargo was the most disastrous of the several mishaps reported from Lake Michigan as the result of the storm.

Caught in the teeth of the "southeast," the carferry was at the mercy of the waves for eighteen hours off Fox Point. The ingenuity and courage of the valiant captain and his crew prevented the boat from being totally destroyed.

The carferry will be unable to make another trip this season. An entire rebuilding will be required at a cost estimated at from $30,000 to $50,000.

WE ARE GETTING THERE.

(Free Press.)

There was 1,133 millions more money in circulation in the United States on the 1st of last July than there was on the corresponding date ten years before. The total circulation was 2,773 millions.

Deposits in savings banks last 1st of July were 3,495 million dollars—722 million dollars more than the total amount of money in circulation.

The total deposits in all banks amounted to about four and one-half times the total amount of money in circulation in the United States. In 1897 it was less than twice as much.

The public debt no longer interests people as it did forty years ago; and it is not so serious a matter now as it was then. It does not, in fact, amount to much as a debt any more. The appropriations of the last session of congress, amounted to about as much as the entire public debt, which was, less cash in the treasury, but $878,000,000. The deposits in the savings banks would pay it about four times over.

The per capita indebtedness on July 1 was $10.26, against $13.78 ten years before. We are paying our debts it will be seen. Importations of merchandise for the year ending July 1, amounted to almost twice those of the corresponding period ten years earlier; while the exports of crude materials for manufactures show about the same gain; and "manufactures for further use in manufacturing" went from $98,000,000 in 1897 to $259,000,000 for the year ending July 1, 1907.

Such figures are bewildering, plain and reliable as they are. As a producing, growing nation, we are getting to the front surely, and not so slowly.

MORE THAN EVER

Increased Capacity for Mental Labor Since Leaving Off Coffee.

Many former coffee drinkers who have mental work to perform, day after day, have found a better capacity and greater endurance by using Postum Food Coffee, instead of ordinary coffee. An Illinois woman writes:

"I had drunk coffee for about twenty years, and finally had what the doctor called 'coffee heart.' I was nervous and extremely despondent; had little mental or physical strength left, had kidney trouble and constipation.

"The first noticeable benefit derived from the change from coffee to Postum was the natural action of the kidneys and bowels. In two weeks my heart action was greatly improved and my nerves steady.

"Then I became less despondent, and the desire to be active again, showed proof of renewed physical and mental strength.

"I am steadily gaining in physical strength and brain power. I formerly did mental work and had to give it up on account of coffee, but since using Postum I am doing hard mental labor with less fatigue than ever before."

TUBERCULOSIS
WIPES OUT HERD

DAIRYMAN PUT OUT OF BUSI-NESS BY DISEASE

FURNISHED MADISON MILK

Herd Is Found to Be Defective and Now Only Two Cows Remain of His Prosperous Business

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Tuberculosis has practically destroyed the whole dairy herd of H. Eken, who for many years past has furnished milk to Madison. Thirty-five head of cattle were shipped to Milwaukee over the Northwestern road yesterday afternoon by order of Dr. David Roberts, state veterinarian. There they will be slaughtered. Two milk cows remain to furnish the family, of the prosperous dairyman, with milk.

The state veterinarian is making tests of cattle throughout the country, furnishing the farmers the tuberculosis free to make the test on the agreement that if the cattle are found to be diseased they will be slaughtered to prevent the spreading of the disease. This campaign is to be carried on in all sections of the state during the winter and it is believed only in this manner can the disease be eradicated. This is the second large district in Dane county which has been found to be affected. A year ago hundreds of heads of cattle in the vicinity of Medina were ordered killed by the state veterinarian as the result of the tests. The disease was spread in this vicinity by the distribution of the skimmed milk from a skimming station to which practically all the farmers brought their product.

It has not been ascertained how so many of the cattle in the Eken herd came to be affected, but it is believed that it was by the purchase of one cow and the disease was then communicated to the other members of the herd.

The milking of the cow the first year determines her future milking value. Important then who handles her, isn't it?

When the cows become thoroughly chilled it reacts upon the milking organs and cuts down materially on the yield.

SCROFULA AN INHERITANCE OF DISEASE AND SUFFERING

No truth is more forcibly manifested in physical life than the old saying "like begets like," for just as the offspring of healthy ancestry are blessed with pure, rich blood, insuring health and strength, so the children of blood tainted parentage inherit a polluted circulation to burden their existence with disease and suffering. Swollen glands about the neck, brittle bones, weak eyes, pale, waxy complexions, running sores and ulcers and general poor health, are the usual ways in which Scrofula is manifested. In some cases the blood is so filled with the scrofulous germs and tubercular matter that from birth life is made miserable with suffering. Others who inherit the disease succeed in holding the trouble in check during young, vigorous life, but when the system has begun to weaken and lose its natural vitality, and especially after a spell of sickness, the ravages of the disease will commence, and in a great many cases terminate in Consumption. S. S. S. is the very best treatment for Scrofula. It renovates the entire circulation and drives out the scrofulous and tubercular deposits. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and it not only goes to the very bottom of the trouble and removes the cause, and cures the disease, but it supplies the weak, anæmic blood with the healthful properties it is in need of. S. S. S. is made entirely of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks, and is an absolutely safe remedy for young or old. Book of the blood and any medical advice about Scrofula given free of charge.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO. ATLANTA, GA.

COLONEL GEORGE HARVEY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Because Americans love argument the announced opinions of Col. George Harvey that Theodore Roosevelt should not be re-elected president of the United States will be received with interest. While Colonel Harvey is admittedly a member of the hopeless minority, nevertheless he finds considerable satisfaction in the straight forward unvarnished promulgation of his anti-Roosevelt views and Colonel Harvey is entitled to attention when he speaks, for not only is he one of New York city's most prominent citizens, but he also is extremely prominent in the journalism of this country. He is editor of Harper's Weekly and editor of the North American Review. He is also president of the great publishing house of Harper & Bros.

Submitting an interview on the subject of President Roosevelt's ineligibility to re-election and the advisability of keeping the strenuous one at the head of federal affairs, Colonel Harvey speaks straight from the shoulder. He says, "There are four excellent reasons for the position which I take and I give them to you for what they are worth."

"Theodore Roosevelt ought not, in my opinion, to be re-elected the president of the federal government because he is opposed to that government, and is desirous of using the power of the president to overthrow its constitution. He has urged, directly and indirectly, that this revolutionary end be accomplished, dishonestly and unlawfully, by 'construction of the constitution.' To this unlawful end, therefore, he would destroy the independence of the judiciary, making it obedient to the political power, as the Stuarts subverted the English courts in order to sustain their unconstitutional theory of divine rights."

"Second—Mr. Roosevelt seeks thus to destroy the federal government of dual sovereignties for the purpose of paternalizing the federal government, and he seeks to do this in order that property rights; all business, all commerce and trade, all corporations and individuals engaged in actual or possible interstate or foreign commerce; all instrumentalities of trade and intercourse and many social and domestic relations shall be put under the control of the federal government, federal government meaning to him control by the president. He is opposed to the constitutional rights of the states because he favors the immediate control by the federal government of the community and the individual, and a more complete government control than is compatible with any theories except those of state socialists."

"Third—In advocating his theories and in uttering his angry threats against all large instruments of business, he has already brought great distress upon the country, including a money panic which is traceable directly to his intemperate speech, the speech of recklessness or of ignorance, whichever you will."

"Fourth—He is unfit to be president, always was and always will be probably, not only for these reasons, but because he is untrained, thoughtless, extravagant, violent, contemptuous of law, regardless of its obligations and unconscious of the virtues of dignity and self-restraint, virtues which have distinguished all the presidents whom we can call great, and which have marked the conduct of all the presidents except two—Andrew Johnson and Theodore Roosevelt."

"RACE" IN WHICH "SKIP" WAS BEATEN

GLEASON TELLS OF RIDICULOUS WINONA VICTORY.

"SKIP'S" PUMP WAS FROZEN

Black Beauty Beat Him to Fountain City by Half an Hour, and Not Five Minutes.

"Seems strange," said E. P. Gleason, owner of the Red Wing racing boat "Skip," today, "that all these fast Winona boats should wait until I had the 'Skip' in winter quarters before they would come strutting down here with their fast boats."

"I have been reading something in the papers about the 'race' between my boat and the Black Beauty of Winona, a few weeks ago, and when the facts are known it is certainly an amusing story."

"I was on my way to Red Wing with the 'Skip' to put her in winter quarters and to have her overhauled. We got into Winona nearly frozen. There was a half inch of ice all over the boat and our clothing was stiff. We were drawing cold air into the engine and there was a half inch of frost on the carburetors, whereas, the Black Beauty was equipped with piping to take warm air from the hot exhaust pipes into the engine, thus making her engines the same as though running in the hot weather."

"We went up town to get thawed out, tying up the 'Skip' at the dock. When we got back the Black Beauty was cavorting about in the river and when Gardiner saw us coming down to the river bank he opened her up and started off up river. He was over half a mile away before we started the 'Skip.' We ran above the bridge when we discovered that our pump had frozen up while the boat was standing and we had to run into the bank again to thaw out the pump. By this time the Black Beauty was out of sight. It took us a half hour nearly to get thawed out and started again, and we had forgotten by that time that the Black Beauty was on earth; we did not even know that Gardiner thought he was running a race. We jogged along at a reasonable clip and when we arrived at Fountain City the Black Beauty was there and had been for a half hour or more."

"That's the kind of a race they're blowing about," laughed the Skip's owner. "I have had the Skip here and open to any boats on the river all summer, still they would wait until it froze up, and were entirely unprepared, then take several miles start of us and call it a race."

"Well, this winter I will have as many clinders put into the Skip as the Winona boats carry, and I will be open to a race with any boat the Winonans can turn out."

"And if they are figuring on a faster one during the winter, there'll be a thirty-five foot Red Wing down here in the spring which will beat anything on the river."

The Winona Story.

The story of the "race" is told as follows by the Winona Independent:

"The Black Beauty, the speedy new launch owned by the Winona Machine works, won in a great race which was run from Winona to Fountain City on Wednesday afternoon."

"The Black Beauty arrived in Fountain City five minutes ahead of the famous Skip of La Crosse."

"The race was one of the most important events that has taken place on the river in this vicinity and it only goes to prove that the Winona boat is the fastest craft to be found in these waters."

"Charles Gardiner of the Winona Machine works had the Black Beauty in charge, and the Skip was in charge of E. P. Gleason of La Crosse, who owns the boat."

"The Skip is known as the Red Wing marine 'flyer' and it has been 'flying' around these waters for several weeks looking for sport, and once or twice it looked as if the Chief of Record would get a chance on a long distance race with the great boat from Red Wing, but all of these arrangements fell through."

"Wednesday the Skip 'steamed' into port here and soon plans were made for the big race and the boats started out from the city dock five minutes apart. The Black Beauty landed at the Palm Garden dock in Fountain City exactly ten minutes ahead of the craft from the Gateway City."

CATCHES WOUNDED GOOSE IN CITY

August Affeldt, 909 South Third street, caught a wild goose near his home Tuesday. Affeldt was driving a team toward his residence, when he noticed a large wild goose circling about in mid-air. Finally the goose struck the pavement with a thud, unable to fly longer.

Affeldt dismounted from the wagon and started in quest of his game. The goose had taken refuge under a

FOUND HIS FRIEND AND GOT HIS MONEY

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The last time George M. Mason of this city wrote to relatives in his "home" town, Fredricksburg, Ia., he bethought himself to inquire about a boyhood friend, Henry Morgan, whom he had not seen or heard from for thirty years. About two weeks later—yesterday—he received a letter from Morgan himself, in which was enclosed a $5 bill.

"My memory is as good as yours, George," wrote Morgan, "and I send you back that $2 you lent me thirty-one years ago, with interest."

Mason says he does not remember loaning the $2 to Morgan and he had no thought of it in mind when he inquired about his old friend.

SPEAKER CANNON IN WRECK

DANVILLE, Ill., Nov. 22.—Speaker Cannon was in a railroad wreck at Bismarck, Ill., a short distance from Danville, Illinois. He escaped injury.

Train No. 14 of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad ran into an open switch, derailing two cars. The one in which Speaker Cannon was riding turned squarely across the track, but miraculously did not overturn.

Beyond being badly shaken up, none of the passengers or trainmen were injured.

ODESSA, Nov. 22.—The trial by a special military court of twenty-seven men of the Eleventh Nicholas I. regiment on charges of mutiny and insubordination is just closed here. Two sergeants and one private who had destroyed a picture of Emperor Nicholas were sentenced to death and at once shot. Nine other men were sent to the mines for ten years, and the other were acquitted. The proceedings were secret.

PFISTER IS GIVEN
$15,000 DAMAGESSUED FOR $250,000 AND JURY
CUTS IT DOWN

FREE PRESS IS DEFENDANT

Notice of Appeal is Filed Immediately on Delivery of Verdict—Jury
Is Out Five Hours.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 22.—Charles Pfister, capitalist, former backer of one wing of the republican party in Wisconsin, and owner of the Milwaukee Sentinel, yesterday was awarded $15,000 damages against the Milwaukee Free Press for libel. Pfister sued for $250,000 damages to his character, charging that the Free Press published a statement that he had acted as stakeholder in a so-called garbage contractor, in which $25,000 was left in his hands.

The jury brought in a verdict yesterday afternoon, after a trial of two and a half weeks. The jury decided that the reputation and character of Mr. Pfister had been damaged to the extent of $10,000 and inflicted $5,000 punitive damages against the Free Press. Immediately after the verdict was rendered, attorneys for the Free Press signified that the case would be appealed.

The jury went out yesterday morning at 11:30 and returned with a verdict at 4:30, taking five hours for deliberations on the case.

The charge of Judge Hastings to the jury in the morning was long, the presiding justice fully explaining the law of libel. He instructed the jury particularly that in his opinion the language of the article complained of was susceptible of the meaning which had been ascribed to them in Mr. Pfister's complaint. Judge Hastings advised the jurors that the duty rested upon them of deciding whether upon all the evidence in the case the meaning attributed to the articles by Mr. Pfister was the natural and ordinary meaning of the language used.

The second way of injuring a man by a libel discussed by Judge Hastings had reference to injury to his feelings, or the mental suffering induced by the publication of the articles and in assessing damages for such injury. Judge Hastings advised the jury that the nature of the charges, the extent of their publicity, the character, social standing and influence of the parties and all surrounding circumstances as shown by the evidence.

The final word on all questions of fact rests entirely with the jury, Judge Hastings said. All that can be done by the court or lawyers is to lay the facts and the law before it and leave the decision to its discretion and best judgment. He said that the fact that the defendant claimed a large amount of damages, furnished no guide to their verdict except in that the law would not permit a larger amount to be awarded than was asked for in the complaint.

"YELLOW WOLF" KILLED.

SPRING GREEN, Wis., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The notorious "yellow wolf," that for five years has caused vast damage to herds of sheep, is no more. James Cosper is the hero of farmers in this neighborhood, for he put an end to the life of the voracious beast. The animal's pelt was a tawny red, and is rare. The wolf was caught in Big Hollow and shot.

FIVE MEN BEATEN
IN LABOR FIGHTKENOSHA, WIS., SEES REVIVAL OF SLUGGING

DEPUTY SHERIFF IS STRUCK

Four Non-Union Employees of Badger
Brass Works Also Suffer—Company to Protect Laborers

KENOSHA, Wis., Nov. 22.—Five men were terribly injured here last night when alleged former employees of the Badger brass company and their sympathizers attacked a crowd of nonunion workmen as they left the plant at closing time. The men were set upon and terribly beaten.

The exact number of men hurt is not known, but the list of the injured as given out at the plant includes: William Dorfman, deputy sheriff and employee of the company, jaw broken and terribly cut about the head and face in places, being beaten into a jelly. Dorfman's revolver was taken by the mob and it is thought that it was used in assaulting him. Max Feldman, solderer, nose broken and terribly cut about the head and face. Michael Polachek, solderer, cut about the face and kicked in the side. Edward Gossman, kicked in the face, but not badly hurt. Thomas King, kicked in the head and face and badly bruised.

Injuries are Not Fatal.

One of the men is thought to be fatally injured, but it will be a long time before they will be able to resume their work at the plant as a result of the injuries received. The managers of the plant declare that the attack had been prearranged and that the men accompanied by the special police officers recently appointed from the ranks of the former employees of the company by the city council and it is claimed that these men made no efforts to stop the assaults upon the men, claiming that they did not see them. Members of the mob had been placed at all points about the plant and as rapidly as the men walked from the plant they were set upon by ten or fifteen and carried off their feet. Then followed the assaults.

It is claimed that the men were kicked, struck with clubs and brass knuckles and that the men did not let up on them until they escaped and ran back into the plant. Physicians were hurriedly summoned to the plant to treat the men and later the managers of the company declined to give out any further information.

No Warrants Yet Issued.

No warrants were issued yesterday for the arrest of any of the men alleged to have been connected with the assaults, but it is claimed that all of the men are known. The managers of the plant stated that the matter would not be taken up in justice court, but that they would take immediate steps to protect the lives of their employees regardless of the police protection proffered by the city.

It is claimed by the managers of the plant that they had been advised that a general attack on the men had been planned for, but that they had not expected trouble yesterday on account of the fact that the managers had been asked to meet the former employees at a conference last evening at which it had been declared that there was a chance to adjust the trouble.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

JANESVILLE—At the instigation of automobile owners an ordinance was recently passed forbidding street cars to stop except at the opposite corner in the business district. The street car company put the plan in operation before it became a city law, and so loud have been the protests that the mayor will refuse to sign the ordinance.

MARINETTE—Myrtle Mason, the 2 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Mason, was fatally burned in a manner which no one as yet has been able to explain. The child was seen by neighbors to run out of the back door of the house, with its clothes all in flames. The fire was extinguished by one of the neighbors.

MARINETTE—Bitten by a house cat while at play with the animal, about three years ago, Frank O'iver, a Menominee veteran, is crippled for life with paralysis, resulting from the injury.

MANTOWOC—The loss to the Great Lakes and Dock company from the storm of Wednesday is $75,000, and may prevent the company from completing the breakwater on Nov. 1, 1908, as per contract.

BELOIT—A contest to break the will of Miss Lottie Mann will probably be begun in January. It is understood Miss Mann left several thousand dollars' worth of property in cash and real estate to the local Methodist church.

CHIPPEVA FALLS—Henry Dechaine, who brought a suit for $780 against Thomas Dechaine, his adopted father for services rendered, has been awarded $500 by a jury.

EAU CLAIRE—A large dam will be built across the Chippewa river, beginning early next season at a point opposite Shawtown in the Fifth ward. The cost will be about $10,000.

MADISON—A baby 22 months old, child of K. O. Kittelsen of the town of Christiana, choked to death on Wednesday on grains of coffee.

STOUGHTON—The Mandt Wagon

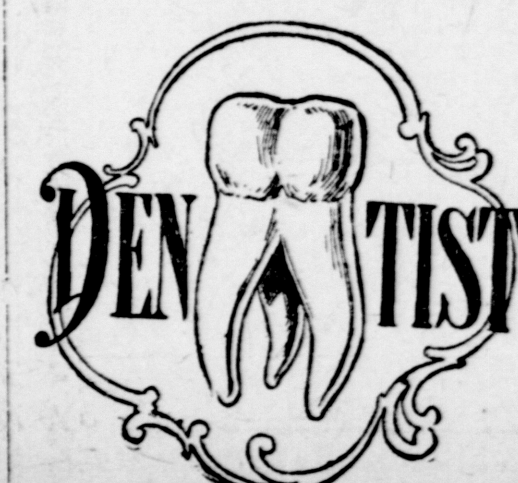

works, which has been shut down for about a month, has resumed operations, a large number of orders having accumulated in that time.

SUPERIOR—A Milwaukee grain dealer has purchased the wheat damaged by the recent fire at the Great Northern Elevator A. It will be used in making mash for the breweries.

TONY—The Beldenville Lumber company of Bruce, Wis., had a $100,000 loss by fire on Wednesday, which destroyed the lumber yard and were it not for the heroic work of fire fighters would have also consumed their large saw and veneer mills. The loss was fully covered by insurance.

WAUSAU—Some time Tuesday night some careless person hunting in the vicinity of the Marathon county asylum fired two shots through a window in the basement of the asylum. No one was wounded.

GROW TREE CROPS.

(Boston Herald.)

Do as much as they may, the nation and the states cannot prevent a crisis if present and future private owners of timber lands do not awaken to the folly of a "penny-wise, pound-foolish policy," and if those who own land that might be used to grow timber do not awaken to the commercial possibilities there are in this crop. President Roosevelt's Memphis speech set forth in unmistakable terms the necessity for the nation to conserve in every possible way the timber that now exists, and it is his intention to call soon a conference of state governors and forestry experts to develop sentiment and inform such officials as may need instruction.

Self-Defense.

Prof. Ogden Chalmers Lorimer, Toledo's veteran educator, is one of the few remaining schoolmasters who still cling to corporal punishment. "I believe in corporal punishment," he said stoutly in a recent address. "I take no stock in moral suasion. Good, healthy boys under moral suasion have too free a time of it. They get out of hand. 'There is a friend of mine,' said Prof. Lorimer with a grim smile, 'who is raising a family of six boys with the help of moral suasion. The mild little chap argued about the matter the other night at a club. 'And do you believe,' said I, 'that moral suasion is better than corporal punishment for big, lusty boys like yours?' 'Yes,' said my friend. 'And do you mean to say that you have never whipped your boys?' I asked. 'As true as I sit here,' my friend declared earnestly. 'I have never struck one of my children except in self-defense.'"—Washington Star.

Checks vs. Cash.

Colonel "Ike" Hill, assistant sergeant-at-arms for the democrats in the house of representatives, has violent political prejudices, and at election time is wont to back them with money. He got into a political discussion in the lobby of the Hoffman house in New York a short time ago and made an assertion that was disputed by a man in the gathering. Colonel "Ike" reached down into his pocket, pulled out a roll of money, and peeled off five $100 bills. "I will just bet you $500 I am right," he said. "I'll take you," said the other. "Wait until I get a pen and ink." A cold look came into Colonel "Ike's" eyes. "What do you want a pen and ink for?" he asked. "Why, I want to write a check for $500 to cover your bet." Colonel "Ike" put his money back in his pocket. "Bring me a pen and ink, too," he said. "For if this is going to be a check bet I'll make it $5,000."—Saturday Post.

SURVEY BOAT "GENERAL WILLIAMS" PREVENTS WRECKS IN GREAT LAKES

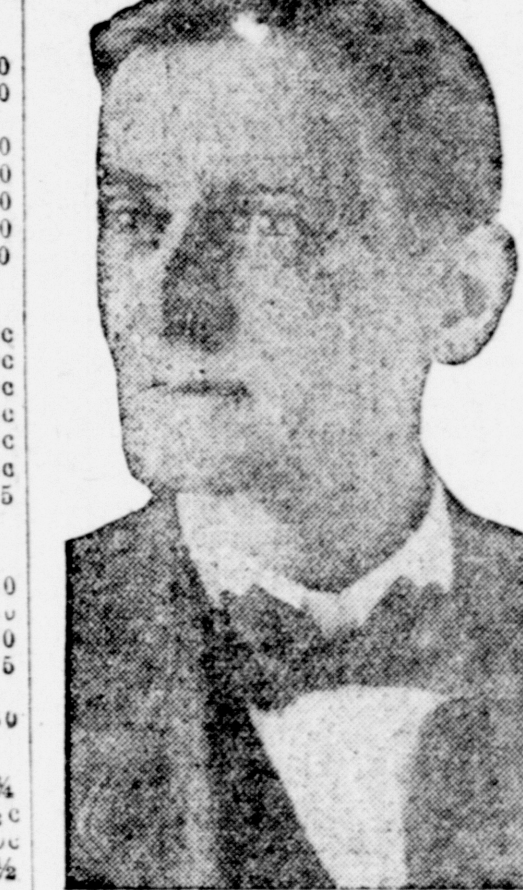

The government is awakening to the need of protecting the common carriers of the great lakes outside the harbors and has established a new department known as the lake survey.

To keep the intricate mesh of the vessel tracks of the lakes clear is part of the task of the lake survey. The lakes should be viewed as the right-of-way of a transportation system in which $125,000,000 are invested in carriers and great sums in terminal facilities.

The way a shoal was discovered in the early days was by wrecking a vessel on it. This was very effective, but there are many shoals in the lakes that have cost upwards of $50,000 in their discovery by this method and some lives have been added to the cost.

The method now used consists essentially in a taut wire a quarter of a mile long suspended horizontally at a depth of 30 feet below the water's surface and towed over successive belts of lake area by a launch or steamer. It is a complete catch-all, and detects a lone spar reaching from a wreck as infallibly as the old method of sounding showed up a shoal of large extent.

The survey steamer General Williams is constantly re-locating wrecks which have been under the surface of the waters for years unnumbered.

W. W. BEATTIE.

When the striking telegraphers of America deposed Samuel J. Small as their president after his capitulation with the Western Union and Postal companies they elevated W. W. Beattie. Beattie hailed from Washington, D. C., and was formerly first vice president of the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America. Now occupying the president's chair of America's commercial telegraphers, he has moved to Chicago, from which center he is directing the activities of his men. In announcing that the strike has been temporarily abandoned, President Beattie and his men are quoted as follows: "While the companies may boast that they have defeated us, truthfulness would compel them to add, in the words of Pyrrhus, a famous Roman general, who won a hard fought battle, 'If we have such another victory we are undone.'"

MRS. G. B. MARVIN LAID TO REST

The funeral of Mrs. George B. Marvin, Sr., who died recently at the La Crosse hospital, after an operation for appendicitis, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of her son, Geo. B. Marvin, Jr., and was attended by a large number of friends and relatives. Rev. Hoag officiated at the services and though his eulogy was brief yet it was very impressive. A large number followed the remains to their last resting place at the Oak Grove cemetery.

The pallbearers were C. C. Looney, Charles White, W. C. Stottera, F. S. Saitz, L. Welles and A. Chubb, all friends of the deceased.

"The devil is the father of lies," quoted the Wise Guy. "Well, all I've got to say is he has a mighty big family," added the simple Mug.

Keep busy on your own place and be content to let your neighbor run his own affairs.

The easiest way to interest a woman in a $1 article is to mark it down from $1.50 to $1.29.

LET ME INFORM YOU FIRST OF ALL

this is no patent medicine ad. You may read it down to the last line and not get stung. I want to talk to you about a sure thing. No risk whatever, it's part of the earth. It can't get away. It's value is fixed. There are more and more people wanting it every day. It is the Ideal Investment. Grover Cleveland says: I will tell you young man, no investment on earth is so sure, so safe, so certain to enrich it's owner as undeveloped realty. I always advise my young friends to invest their savings in Real Estate in or near some growing town. There is no such savings bank anywhere. Andrew Carnegie says: There is no doubt that Real Estate is the very best investment for small savings. It is bound to grow into money. More fortunes are accumulated from the raise in Real Estate than all other causes combined. To speculate in stocks is risky and even dangerous, but when you buy Real Estate you buy an inheritance. The wise young man or wage earner of today invests in Real Estate. Now Listen! I have investments that pay from six to ten per cent and improved property that is bound to increase in value. La Crosse is the growing town. Come lets talk it over.

PROFESSOR BRANDS MILK AS FILTHY

IOWA SUPPLY IS UNFIT TO DRINK

DAIRY CRUSADE IS STARTED

Member of University Faculty Says Twenty Per Cent of Cows are Afflicted With Tuberculosis

FORT DODGE, Ia., Nov. 22.—That fully 20 per cent of the cows which furnish the city of Fort Dodge with its daily milk supply are afflicted with tuberculosis is the claim of Dr. J. W. Kime, who is seeking to have the city council pass drastic measures with regard to the regulation of the milk traffic. Dr. Kime holds the chair of lecturer on tuberculosis at the Iowa State university. He maintains a sanitarium for the treatment of the disease at Fort Dodge and is considered the most learned authority on the subject of tuberculosis in the state.

"There is no more filthy and unhealthy thing coming to our tables," said Dr. Kime, "than the milk that is peddled about the city daily. It is unclean and detrimental to health, outside of the question of its coming from diseased cows. Authorities are agreed that nothing contributes more to the spread of tuberculosis than the humble cow. By means of the milk the raw bacillus is taken into the system and easily finds a hold."

"What is true with regard to the dairy herds of Fort Dodge and vicinity is true with regard to Iowa, and what is true with Iowa, holds good with practically the entire country. Ten years ago I made the statement that 10 per cent of the dairy herds were tubercular. It was challenged and tests in various parts of the state showed 23 per cent to be afflicted."

Dr. Kime's first attempt to secure the passage of an ordinance requiring tests of dairy herds and licensing of dealers failed before the city council. He has announced that the fight has only commenced and he will now adopt other means for the protection of the health of the milk fed child or milk using adult.

MURDER MYSTERY STILL BAFFLES

FAIL TO DECIDE ON DEATH AT INQUEST.

SCENT CHLOROFORM POISON

Evidence of Drug Being Used Is Uncertain; Doctor Says Wounds Were Not Self Inflicted

MANKATO, Minn., Nov. 22.—Was Isaac E. Wheeler murdered, did he die of natural causes or did he commit suicide?

Though a coroner's inquest has been called to determine on the death of the old man, the mystery which shrouds the death remains as thick as ever, and it is doubted in many quarters if the puzzle to Mankato officials ever will be solved. Jud Cornell, who was foreman of the third jury, which tried Dr. Koch of the murder of Dr. L. A. Gebhardt, acted as foreman of the coroner's jury.

Two new and sensational features were developed at the inquest, both tending to substantiate the murder theory. One was the testimony of a Mapleton physician that there were evidences of Wheeler's having been chloroformed and that the blood did not clot as it ordinarily would. The other was the fact that Wheeler's shirt sleeves were drawn down to his wrists and buttoned, although one arm had four stab wounds and the other three.

Neighbors Tell Story.

Andrew Howieson's testimony comprised something entirely new. He said that the Sunday prior to the tragedy he had had a confidential talk with Wheeler who asked his opinion of the contract that he had entered into with the Cottons. Howieson approved of it and Wheeler expressed himself the same way, adding, "Old Ike will sit by the fire all winter and toast his shins." But this expression did not coincide with other remarks made by Wheeler, who informed Howieson that he (Wheeler) would disappear and die some of these days, and his body would never be found. He did not expect to live a month.

"I had two shocks this morning and have to stamp my feet and clap my hands before I can get out of bed," said Wheeler. "You needn't be surprised some day to come down here and find old Ike dead on the floor."

Evidence of Chloroform. Dr. Bomberger testified that when the body was taken from the river (Wheeler's shirt sleeves were drawn down to the wrists and buttoned. The wounds could have been self-inflicted and a man losing the quantity of blood that Wheeler did could walk the distance from Wheeler's house to the river. He could not account for the appearance of the blood found on the floor of Wheeler's house. Blood usually clots within a few moments, but in this case it did not. He thought that there were indications of chloroform having been administered.

A request was made for a post-mortem examination and the inquest was adjourned until this can be made.

WEDDING GUEST IS KILLED

LITTLE FALLS, Minn., Nov. 22.—Charles Anderson, who has been section foreman on the Northern Pacific at Randall for the last fifteen years while returning from a wedding celebration at Darling with George Schimmerhorn on a handcar was run into by Passenger train No. 5 near Darling and instantly killed at midnight.

BUCKETSHOP BEATEN

FORT DODGE, Ia., Nov. 22.—A precedent with regard to bucket shop gambling has been set by the decision of Federal Judge Reed in the United States district court here in overruling a motion of the plaintiff for a new trial in the case of Ware & Leland vs. Pearsons.

John H. Pearsons, brother-in-law of Senator Dooliver, speculated on the board of trade in 1905 through the branch office in Fort Dodge of Ware & Leland, a Chicago commission firm. After several months of trading his losses amounted to $6,000 and payment was refused on the ground that the transactions were gambling deals and had no standing in the eyes of the law.

The commission firm went to the courts for recourse and in the original trial last June a verdict was rendered in favor of Pearsons. The basis of the decision was the finding that the transactions were in futures and delivery was never intended.

NORTHWEST BRIEFS

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia.—The annual inspection of the Iowa soldiers' home was made Tuesday by the state G. A. R. committee, representing the department of Iowa. The purpose of the investigation is to learn the need of the home, so that legislation may be recommended. The inspecting committee consisted of Phil Schaller, Sac City; Lieut. Gov. J. C. Millman, of Logan; former Senator J. B. Classen, of Green Mountain, and G. A. Pease, of Des Moines.

LEAD, S. D.—Grand Master T. M.

MAY CLARK AND "TRIXIE."

Trixie Clark is a dog with a reputation. Left in Columbus, Ohio, more than three hundred miles away on March 18 last, this dog, pet and companion of May Clark, aged 16, of 235 North Clark street, Chicago, suddenly turned up in Chicago this week and discovered his mistress having made one of the most remarkable journeys performed by an animal on record. In addition to having traveled more than three hundred miles to his home, he accomplished the additional feat of singling out the family with whom he formerly lived from among more than 2,000,000 people. How the dog found the residence of his young mistress will always remain a mystery. He put in his appearance, however, this week. For months Trixie has been numbered among the lost or stolen. It appears now, however, that he was just a home sick tramp.

Simmons of Huron is now in the Black Hills, on a tour of inspection of the various lodges of the A. O. U. W. in each of the towns he will be given a reception and entertainment by the members of the lodge.

DES MOINES, Ia.—The annual session of the Corn Belt Meat Producers' association will be held here Dec. 10. Among the interesting discussions will be a paper on "Transportation," by Clifford Thorne of Washington, D. C.

MELROSE, Minn.—Leo Jaster, the 4-year-old son of Alex. Jaster, fell in a tub of boiling water while his mother was doing washing, and was so severely scalded that he died after suffering for over twenty-four hours.

BARNESVILLE, Minn.—The store of Mr. Johnson of Winnipeg Junction was entered by thieves, who gained entrance by smashing the rear window. They secured $1.60 in small change from the till. They also took several overcoats, but these were found later some distance from the store.

GRACEVILLE, Minn.—Winter sports have begun here, the lakes having frozen over, allowing opportunities for outdoor sport on the ice.

DES MOINES, Ia.—At Iowa City a jury awarded John Canfield $49,000 against the Rock Island for being crippled in an accident on that road.

This is the largest personal injury judgment ever awarded in the state.

ALBERT LEA, Minn.—While Dr. Hanes was busy at about 6 o'clock in the evening a thief dodged in at the back door, secured the money drawer to the safe and decamped. There was about $40 in cash and several checks in the drawer, and it has disappeared.

MANKATO, Minn.—Adam Didra found a dandelion in blossom, with its yellow petals extended to the sun's rays, while walking in the country yesterday.

ANNUAL COFFEE CHARMING SUCCESS

For the thirteenth time the annual gentlemen's coffee which was originated by Rev. Faville was held at the Congregational church parlors at the corner of Main and Seventh street. It was remarked last evening that not a few young men had found their brides at these occasions, being so smitten with the dainty way they were waited upon by the young ladies of the congregation.

The annual coffee is always looked forward to with great interest.

At 6:30 the following menu was served, during which Prof. Reuter's quintette furnished the music which proved to be one of the features of the evening.

Menu.
Cream of Tomato
Fillet of beef, Brown Sauce
Mashed Potatoes
Macaroni
Assorted Sandwiches
Celery
Ice Cream
Cranberry Jelly
Cake
Coffee

No one seemed to think the event fateful on account of its thirteenth anniversary and all ate with relish. Rev. E. G. Updike was the speaker of the evening and Rev. Faville was toast master, opening the after-dinner program by introducing several of the others present. J. M. Holley gave an address of welcome.

Prof. Reuter played the violin solo "Cavatina," which received much applause.

Prof. L. P. Benevise of the La Crosse high school was the next to respond and gave a humorous citation, responding to an encore.

Rev. Updike of Madison then opened with his speech telling a few interesting stories after which he launched forth into the religious part of the program, saying that the church was composed of two-thirds women, although it had many things which should also appeal to the men.

He believed, however, that the church did not have the support of as many able men as it should have, and that since the fundamental principles of religion were right they should receive the approval of more men.

The reception committee was composed of Judge John Brindley, Hon. J. J. Sch. Dr. J. L. Callahan, Messrs. J. H. Lightbody, F. G. Tiffany, W. R. Montague and George H. Ray.

The guests were served by the young men of the church, Messrs. Charles Bradish, Fred Craft, Ben Brindley, Ralph Bradish, Homer Davis, Leslie Derr, Harold Ravis, Don Dickinson, Paul Esch, Porter Green, Howard ones, Fred Lang, Alfred Leisring, Walter Mueller, Norman Moll, Archie Olberg, Merl Savage, Carl Schweizer, Eugene Simon and George Walker.

From their actions, we infer the some people consider every chance a fighting chance.

The vagrant dog and the vagrant man have a lot of liberty they would be glad to exchange for some more tangible joy.
